ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of Magdaline Rockwell deeply appreciates the love, prayers and support you have shown during this time. Your presence, words of comfort and thoughtful gestures have brought us great peace and strength. Thank you for honoring Magdaline Rockwell's memory with us today. We are grateful for each of you.

The Family of Magdaline (Lean) Rockwell

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR DEAREST SISTER

The moment your heart stopped, our world was forever changed. You were so special to us — our angel on earth. You protected us, comforted us and showered us with your love, kindness and a heart full of gratitude. You made our world a better place simply by being in it. A true gift from heaven, you will always be "Our Angel."

*We thank God every day for blessing us with you.
Our sister, our friend and our angel.*

With love,

*Geraldine, Junior, Cal, Von,
Rita and Nita*

LIFE STORY

Magdaline Rockwell was born in Cordele, Georgia on August 8, 1953, to the parents of Mattie L. Rockwell and Eddie W. Rockwell. She attended Duval County Public Schools.

Lean loved to praise the Lord and was a member of Eyes of Understanding Assembly under the leadership of the late Pastor David L. Williams and First Lady Von Williams.

She loved to dance, enjoyed good food and family gatherings. She always gave the biggest hugs and kisses, had an uplifting spirit and never met a stranger.

Lean was preceded in death by her parents: Eddie and Mattie Lee Rockwell; brothers: Edward Rockwell and Earl Rockwell; grandparents: Janie Mae and Herbert Williams and her pastor and devoted brother-in-law: Pastor David L. Williams.

Left to forever cherish her memories are her siblings: Geraldine Rockwell, Eddie Rockwell, Jr. (Johnisha), Ernest C. Rockwell, Von Williams, Arlean R. Johnson (Christopher) and Airlene N. Gantling (Juan); sister-in-law: Mary Rockwell and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
