YOUR SPIRIT — A TRIBUTE TO OUR FATHER

I know that no matter what
You will always be with me.
When life separates us
I'll know it is only your soul
Saying goodbye to your body
But your spirit will be with me always.
When I see a bird chirping on a nearby branch
I will know it is you singing to me.
When a butterfly brushes gently by me so care freely
I will know it is you assuring me you are free from pain.
When the gentle fragrance of a flower catches my attention
I will know it is you reminding me
To appreciate the simple things in life.
When the sun shining through my window awakens me
I will feel the warmth of your love.
When I hear the rain pitter patter against my window sill
I will hear your words of wisdom
And will remember what you taught me so well
That without rain trees cannot grow
Without rain flowers cannot bloom
Without life's challenges I cannot grow strong.
When I look out to the sea
I will think of your endless love for your family.
When I think of mountains, their majesty and magnificence
I will think of your courage for your country.
No matter where I am
Your spirit will be beside me
For I know that no matter what
You will always be with me.

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Don't think of him as gone away

His journey's just begun,

Life holds so many facets

This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting

From the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing

That we could know today

How nothing but our sadness

Can really pass away.

And think of him as living

In the hearts of those she/he touched

For nothing loved is ever lost

And she/he was loved so much.

HEARTFELT EULOGY FOR AUBERT SAINT HUBERT

Good Afternoon Family and Friends,

We gather here today to honor the extraordinary life of Aubert Saint Hubert, a man whose presence in our lives was nothing short of a blessing. Aubert was born on December 2, 1944, in Les Cayes, Haiti, to his devoted parents, Euphanite and Ducosste. From the beginning, Aubert showed a determination and intelligence that would carry him through a remarkable journey filled with love, service, and sacrifice.

Aubert was a man of many gifts—an accomplished linguist, a proud service member, and a loving patriarch. His time in the Haitian military not only molded his character but also gave him the tools to navigate life with discipline and grace. He was fluent in English, French, and Spanish, but his most profound language was the language of love and wisdom, which he spoke fluently to all who knew him.

His life's work was his family, and there was no greater joy for Aubert than ensuring the happiness and success of those he loved. From building a home for his family in Haiti to bringing his children to America, he made countless sacrifices to ensure a better life for the next generation. Aubert's strength was not just in his physical presence but in his character—his unwavering integrity, humility, and boundless wisdom. He taught us all what it means to live with love and respect.

Aubert was a man of refined tastes, with a deep appreciation for the beauty of life. He loved to travel, to explore the world and its wonders. He savored fine wine, and the moments of laughter shared over a well-prepared meal. He dressed in elegance and purpose, always wearing tailored suits, never jeans—a reflection of the dignity with which he carried himself.

To his family, Aubert was not just a provider but a guiding light. His lessons will forever resonate in our hearts. You have shown us, Grandpa, what it means to be strong—not just in body but in character. Your wisdom, integrity, and the way you handled life's challenges with humility have shaped us more than words can express. You have taught us that being strong is not about having all the answers but about doing what is right, caring for those you love, and staying true to yourself.

You taught us how to listen, how to lead with respect, and how to take responsibility for our actions. The lessons you passed on will remain with us for the rest of our lives, and we will carry them forward with pride, knowing we stand on the foundation you built.

Today, we celebrate a life well-lived, a man who gave so much and asked for so little. Aubert, we are grateful for your love, your wisdom, and the legacy you left behind. Your light continues to shine in each of us, and we will honor your memory by striving to embody the values you so gracefully lived. Rest in peace, Aubert Saint Hubert. You are loved beyond measure and will be missed more than words can say. Thank you for everything. May your soul find eternal rest.
