

JAMES McCOY, JR.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.*

*The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne and said "Welcome Home"*

*So When Tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart.
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*

JAMES McCOY, JR.

James McCoy, Jr, affectionately known as Jimmie, was born on May 13, 1948, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to James McCoy, Sr. and Coretta McCoy. He departed his physical life on December 20, 2024, surrounded by loved ones. James was raised in Jacksonville, Florida by his aunt, Victoria Breaker. During his youth, Jimmie attended Grace Baptist Church in East Springfield. He went to Long Branch Elementary and Matthew W. Gilbert High School.

After completing high school from Matthew W. Gilbert in 1966, he served in the United States Army. After his honorable discharge, he moved to New Jersey where he worked for Mellon Bank and eventually retired from the United States Postal Service. He was married to Eunice McCoy.

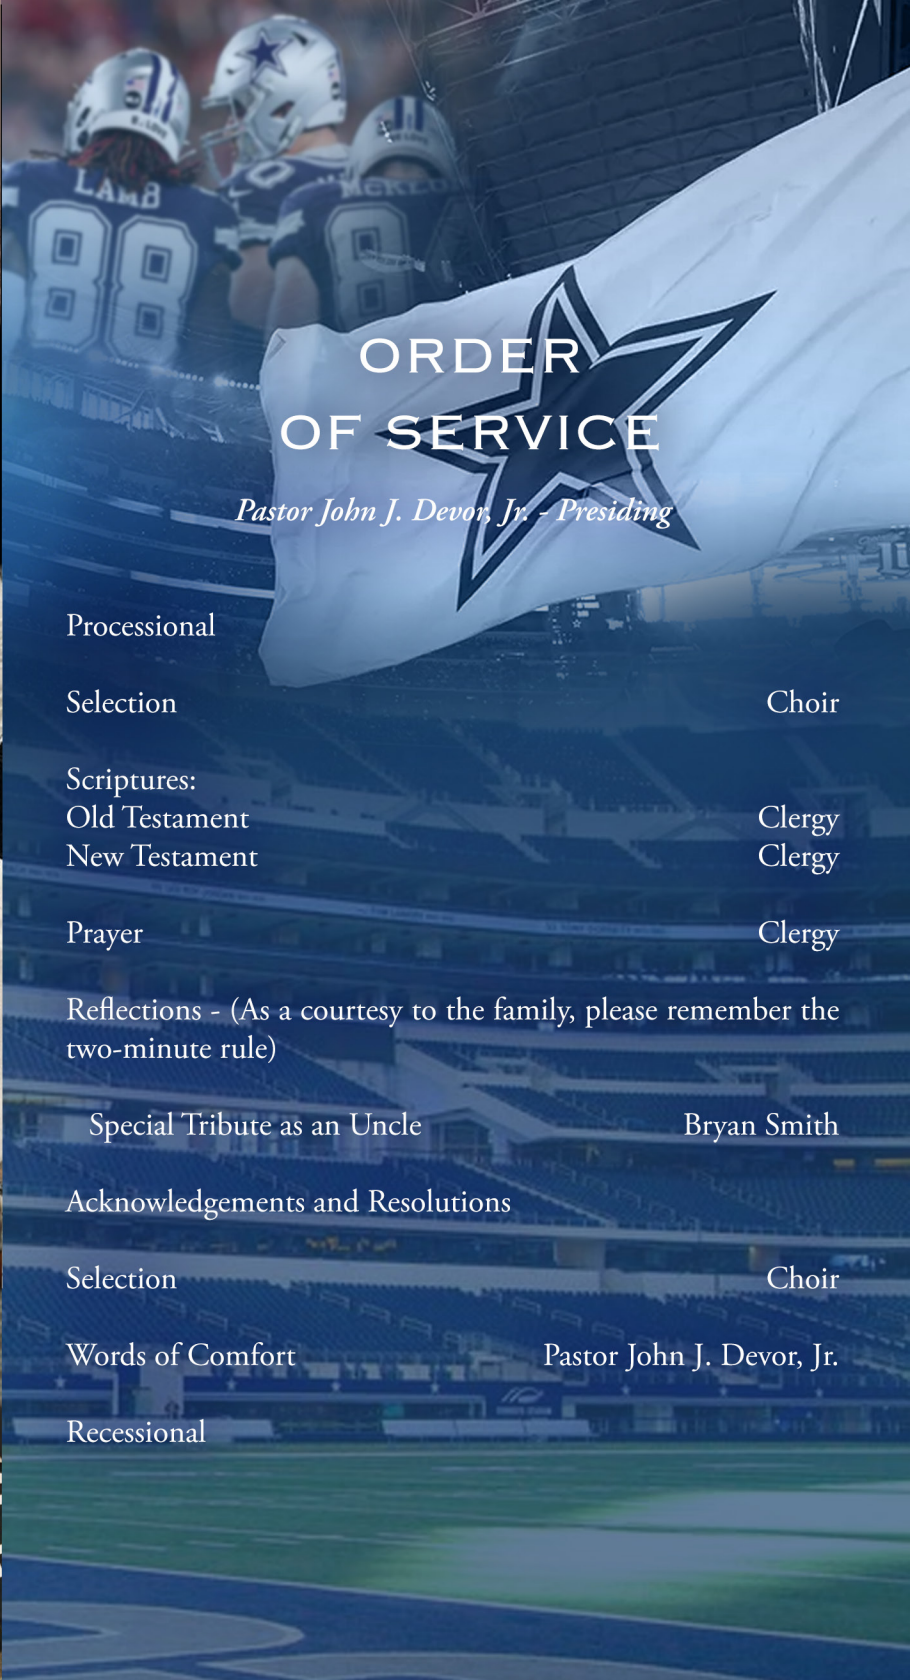

Jimmie was known for his charming personality and his infectious smile. He took tremendous pride in his appearance. He had a way of making each person he encountered feel special, although Jimmie's greatest joy was being with his family.

Jimmie was a big football fan, especially for the Dallas Cowboys. He was a loyal and avid fan of the Cowboys.

During his thirty-four years of sobriety, he built a strong kinship with those he attended meetings with, including those he mentored, sponsored and encouraged. His commitment to his sobriety serves as a model to others as an example of his strength to overcome obstacles.

He was preceded in death by his wife: Eunice McCoy; parents: James McCoy, Sr. and Coretta McCoy; aunt: Victoria (Madea) Breaker and brothers: Desi and Michael McCoy.

Jimmie leaves to mourn his death, his brother: William McCoy; sisters: Antionette Owens and Louise McCoy and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins who loved him dearly. His memory will live on forever in the hearts of those who loved him.
