

Remembering the Life of Scottie Eugene Allen

January 17, 1966—December 23, 2024

And God shall wipe away all tears
from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow,
nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Revelation 21:4

KJV

IN LOVING MEMORY

I thought of you with love today, But that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday, And days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak
your name.

All I have are memories, And your picture in a frame. Your memory's my keepsake,

With which I'll never part. God has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart.

Scottie E. Allen was a man whose presence was felt deeply by all who knew him. A devoted partner, loving father, proud grandpa and cherished brother. He was the foundation of his family. Scottie had a way of speaking from the heart, always direct and to the point, but his words were filled with wisdom, warmth and care. His love for those around him was unwavering and he showed it in the simplest and most meaningful ways.

A true protector and guiding force, Scottie's loyalty, strength and kindness shaped the lives of those who were lucky enough to call him their family or friend. His spirit lives on in the hearts of all who loved him. His legacy will never be forgotten. Rest in peace, Scottie — your love remains with us forever.
