FAMILY TREE

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I hear a voice that whispers: Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, and the songs, The good I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep on smiling; the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease; my soul is at rest, Remembering how I was truly blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until that fine day we're together again.

A LIFE WELL LIVED LAKENBRIA SAD'E TONEY

A little diva was born on February 7, 1989, in West Palm Beach, Florida, and quickly became a shining light to all who knew her—Ms. Lakenbria Sad’e Toney (affectionately known as “Kimmie”). She was the beloved daughter of Kenrick Julius Toney and the late Wanda Michelle Jackson-Toney.

Lakenbria’s educational journey began at Timber Trace Elementary School, followed by John F. Kennedy Middle School and culminated with her graduation from William T. Dwyer High School. Her pursuit of knowledge didn’t stop there—she earned an associate degree from Palm Beach State College and a Bachelor of Education from Edward Waters College, now the prestigious Edward Waters University. Lakenbria was a brilliant and multifaceted individual. While her heart was firmly rooted in education, she also achieved numerous certifications, including Home Health Aide (HHA), First Coast Security Certification and the State of Florida Department of Education Certification.

As a dedicated and passionate educator, Lakenbria left an indelible mark on the schools she served: Renaissance Charter School of St. Lucie, North Florida Educational Institute and River City Science Academy. Education was her superpower. She had an unmatched passion for inspiring young minds, bridging gaps in learning and loving every child as if they were her own. She knew each student by name and encouraged them to become the best versions of themselves, both in and out of the classroom.

Lakenbria’s faith was the foundation of her life. In West Palm Beach, she attended Christian Temple AME Church. While visiting her late mother in Savannah, she worshipped at her home church, St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church. As an adult, she proudly served as a member of St. Luke Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Florida, under the leadership of Reverend Levy Washington. Lakenbria’s personality was larger than life. She embodied the essence of a diva, radiating confidence, grace, empathy and charm. Her vibrant smile was contagious, lighting up every room she entered. She had a rare gift for making everyone she encountered feel loved, special, and truly seen. For Lakenbria, friends were family, and she created an unparalleled sense of connection and belonging among those in her circle.

Her hobbies included dancing, cooking, church, fashion and celebrating her sorority sisterhoods. Most importantly, she found joy in loving and uplifting those around her.

Her legacy of love, passion, and inspiration will forever shine as a beacon of light in the hearts and lives of all who she captivated.

Lakenbria was preceded in death by her beloved mother: Wanda Michelle Jackson-Toney; maternal grandparents: Eva and Daniel Jackson; stepmother: Joyce Anetta Sutton-Toney; siblings: Garvin Anthony, Julius Toney and Gary Julius Toney and her paternal grandmother: Princess Toney.

She is survived by her father: Kenrick Julius Toney; cherished godchildren: Randi Nyasia Walker; Mikayla, Major and Morgan Clayton and Aniyah Coleman; adored godsisters and godbrother: Tonika Wilson, Omega and Carlos Baker, and Chebria Thompson. She leaves behind a host of aunts, one great-aunt, uncles, other relatives, extended family, including her church family and lifelong friends.
