

IT IS WELL

Death is nothing at all,
I have only slipped into the next room I am I and you are you Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, Please speak to me in the easy way which you always used Put no difference in your tone,

Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner.
All is well.

HER STORY

THE OBITUARY

ANGELIS JACKSON SIRMONS, affectionately known as Ann, was born on July 10, 1963 in Fitzgerald, Georgia to Fannie Bell Jackson.

Angelis obtained her license in Cosmetology and later owned and operated her own beauty salon called The Hair Stylist.

She was affiliated with the church, Kingdom Empowerment Center.

Angelis had a green thumb for gardening and enjoyed doing yard work. She also enjoyed the latest fashion trends, going shopping and thrifting. Ann was preceded in death by her mother, Fannie Bell Jackson.

She is survived by her children: Tonisha R. Jackson and Carlos A. Green; grandchildren: Chyna Smith, Ian Green, Talayasia Smith, Major White and Cairo Green; sisters: Shauna Harris (Dennis), Carla Harris and Patricia Jackson (sister cousin); aunts: Ethel Mae Jackson, Dorris Bray and Connie Paul; uncles: Curtis L. Jackson, Sr. and Willie Jackson; Special Loving Friend: Dennis Harvey and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
