

SIGH

*I hear your spirit call out to mine and immediately I'm awakened
I close my eyes and begin to answer your call
I close my eyes and hold out my hand
We clasp hands, I tell you it's okay to be tired and want rest
I'll be with you until the end, Or the beginning
Whatever you decide, Being with our FATHER
Or staying.....Fighting
I know whatever you choose, we will be alright
With our hands clasped, I begin to Pray, Meditate, Praise, You in my life
Our FATHER, Tears begin to flow, Peace, Joy, Acceptance
Flows down my face, As I listen to the messages of grace and mercy
I feel.....Surrounded, Amazed, Strong
I start to slowly feel your hands slip from mine, your decision is made
Whatever you choose will be okay with me, I stay awake as long as I can
So, you know, you are.....Loved, Cherished, And Delivered into the hands of OUR FATHER*

Sarah's Story

Mrs. Sarah Harris was born on April 30, 1945, in Lakeland, Georgia to Annie Mae Thompson and Willie James Harris.

On January 3, 1971, she was joined in holy matrimony with her husband, Rufus Harris and together they shared fifty-four years of marriage.

Sarah was a retired paraprofessional with Duval County Public Schools.

She was the Pastor of Temple of Jesus and the Holy Ghost.

Sarah was loving, kind and nurturing, always sharing words of encouragement with others.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Annie Mae Thompson and Willie James Harris; brother: Willie James Harris, Jr.; sister: Mary Craine Larson; daughter: Verna Culver; grandson: Christopher Culver and mother-in-law: Birdell Harris.

Left to cherish her memory is her husband: Rufus Harris; daughters: Vanessa Harris, Trina Harris and Sarah Harris-Akins (Clinton); son: Rufus E. Harris; grandchildren: Nicholas Culver, Angel Culver, Aaron Harris (Tia), Tariq Akins and Kezia Harris; great-grandchildren: Madelyn Harris, Caleb Harris, Carson Harris and Aleya Goza; brother: Moses Craine and sister: Alveta Ramsey Frazier and a host of other relatives and friends. Two special friends and sisters in Christ: Mary Gardner and Carrie Manor.
