

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalms 23

Kiana's Story

Kiana DeJanelle Taylor was born on April 1, 1978, in Yonkers, New York to the parents of Samuel G. Taylor, Jr. and Edna Y. Herring-Cooper. She graduated from Highland Park High School in Topeka, Kansas. Later, she relocated to Jacksonville, Florida where she worked at Cici's Pizza in the early 2000's.

She loved music, nature and making jewelry. She especially loved her stuffed animals and dolls. Kiana also loved watching The Cosby Show.

Her favorite movie was The Passion of Christ. She loved God and to pray.

Kiana participated in the Special Olympics for which she won a trophy for golf and bowling. Kiana lived at Turn Around Group Home until her death.

Left to cherish her memory is her mother: Edna Y. Herring-Cooper; siblings: Dimitrius Herring, Samuel Taylor, III, Hassan Taylor, Shakira Taylor, Drakar Taylor, Aaliyah Taylor, Mario Jones, Kiki Whitted, Shanik Whitted, Jonas Alston, Almark Alston, Altarik Alston, Hanif Hannibal, Douglas Smalls, Mahmoud Fleary and Samina Sundance McCall; grandmother: Mary L. Burwell and a host of many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. She will be greatly missed!
