

FOREVER MISSING YOU

A silent space where laughter once did ring. A vacant chair, a heart that cannot sing. Your smile, a memory, so vivid and so clear. Though gone from sight, your love is ever near. In whispers of the wind, I hear your name.

In star lights gleam, your love remains the same.
The tears that fall, A tribute to the bond we shared.
A love so deep, no time can ever wear. Dad, you're going to be missed so much.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words cannot express our heartfelt gratitude for all the love that was shown to our family during the loss of our beloved husband and daddy, George Lewis Daniels, Sr. We are truly grateful for the visits, texts, phone calls, food, love, support, thoughts and prayers.

May Jehovah continue to Bless you all as we await his promise to see our dead loved ones again. Revelation 21: 3-4

OBITUARY

Mr. George Lewis Daniels, Sr. was affectionately known to his family as Big G, Daddy, Pops and Granddaddy. He was born in Swainsboro, Georgia on May 21, 1944, to the parents of George Ben Daniels and Ruby Lee Ellison. He attended Swainsboro and Forrest Park Elementary Schools and James Weldon Johnson Middle School.

He was married to his wife, Delores Porter-Daniels, for sixty years and worked for American Coolair as a Material Handler for forty-eight years.

He was a devoted Jehovah's Witness for over fifty years. He made sure he attended his theocratic meetings and spending time in the ministry.

George was a dedicated husband who enjoyed spending time with his beloved wife and seeing his grandchildren. He especially enjoyed taking long drives to visit his children. His children referred to him as Daddy because he was indeed a Daddy. He loved going back to his hometown of Swainsboro, Georgia visiting his family and reminiscing about his childhood, often remembering every dirt road where he lived.

George enjoyed sitting in the middle of his bedroom pressing his clothes for hours at a time. He didn't play about his clothes, which he passed that trait on to his children. George also enjoyed singing, taking cruises, traveling and watching his favorite teams, the Florida Gators and the Jacksonville Jaguars.

He was preceded in death by his father: George Ben Daniels; mother: Ruby Lee Ellison; brothers: James, Preston and Wilbur Daniels; sisters: Margaret Brown and Johnnie Mae Snells; granddaughters: Jaquambia Roundtree and Tammeka Daniels and Great-Granddaughter: Londyn Turner.

He is survived by his loving and devoted wife of sixty years: Delores Porter-Daniels; children: Delores Monson (Gerald), Diana Williams (Eugene), George Daniels, Jr. (Valencia), Tammy Lynn Grace and Cynthia Dixon (Frank); brothers and sisters: Frankie Daniels, Mae Lois Middleton (Ridgeway), Dorothy Daniels, Ray Daniels and Faye Daniels; good friend: Joe Brown (Betty); fifteen grandchildren; thirty-two great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
