

THE SUN

The sun comes into our lives when we need it the most. It comes to make us smile in dark times and laugh when we want to cry. The sun is loved by hundreds of people who fight which one needs to sun the most. It uses its brightness to make our days better and shines down on us with love. The sun only leaves when it feels its job is done. It leaves knowing it made an impact on our lives and nothing can ever replace the feeling the sun gave to us. Even though we can no longer see the sun, it will follow us wherever we go.
