"Forever in Your Hearts: Words to Remember"

My dear ones, don't weep, don't grieve too long,
For I am with you in heart and song.
In each laugh and tear, I'll be near,
Guiding you forward, year by year.

Remember the joy, the love we shared,
The moments together when we truly cared.
Hold tight to the lessons I left behind,
Strength and kindness, gentle and kind.

Feel my warmth in the morning sun,
In the quiet moments when day is done.
I am in the laughter, the whispered prayer,
In every cherished memory we bear.

Carry on, my loves, with courage and grace,
Let my spirit live on in each loving embrace.
And know that I am resting above,
Forever wrapped in all your love.

Life & Legacy

Mary L. Wright was born in Bartow, Georgia on September 19, 1931, to the parents of Willie B. Roberts and Johnnie L. Roberts. In later years, Mary met and married Robbie L. Wright.

Mary enjoyed fishing, singing in the choir and taking care of her children and grandchildren. She was truly a rare jewel.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Mr. Robbie L. Wright and sons: Larry Robinson and Ronnie Robinson.
