

I FOUND

A WAY TO FEEL BETTER

*I found a way to feel better
Now that you're not here.
I closed my eyes and
Realized that's when it's really clear.
I'm reminded that I'm not alone,
That you are still nearby.
I visualize you somewhere smiling,
Maybe in your fishing gear.
I remember that there's no more
Pain, suffering, or fear.*

*All you feel is love and peace,
Like you gave us in your years.
I block out the noise around
And that's when I can hear
Your sweet voice, so softly spoken,
Gentle in my ears.*

*A limb has fallen from our tree
But we will pick it up
So everyone we know can see
That you still live through us.*

*I wish we had more time,
I know you wished it too.
And we'll never know the reason,
God needed you.*

*But I found a way to feel better
Now that you're not here.
The memories you left with
Us will dry away my tears.*

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Keith Julian Glenn was born in Jacksonville, Florida on May 8, 1957, to the parents of Otis J. Glenn and Gloria Pierce Baker. He attended Draper Elementary School in Washington, D.C. Later, he relocated with his family to Jacksonville, Florida where he attended J.E.B. Stuart Middle School and William M. Raines High School.

After he obtained his GED, Keith enlisted in the United States Army and served our country dutifully for thirty-five years, including serving three active deployments. While serving in the U. S. Army, Keith proudly received numerous recognitions and awards including the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Service Ribbon, the National Defense Service Medal, a three time recipient of the Army Achievement Medal, a four time recipient of the Army Good Conduct Award, a two time recipient of the NCO Professional Development Ribbon and a three time recipient of the Overseas Service Ribbon. After retiring from the military, he was employed by G4S Security for ten years.

Keith grew up in St. Stephen AME Church and regularly attended The Potter's House International Ministries.

He met and married Tammy Glenn and they shared twenty years of marriage together.

Keith was an avid Florida State Seminole (FSU) fan. He also enjoyed fishing, Jaguar games, basketball, boxing and most importantly, spending time with family.

Keith was preceded in death by his mother: Gloria Pierce Baker and father: Otis J. Glenn.

He is survived by his wife of twenty years: Tammy Glenn; children: Takesha Stephens (Ernest), Imen Glenn and Keiana Pennant (Sadik); bonus children: Stephanie Brumfield (Jeffrey), Michael Baker, Anita Bailey and Andre Bailey (Shayla); grandchildren: Megan Hughes, Briana Hughes, Takara Manning, Jacorey Stephens, Lonnie Thompson, Shamien Bailey, Zara Stephens, Stavaan Bailey, Agina Bailey, Zyria Bailey, Audree Bailey, Deontae Bailey and Amora Bailey; great-granddaughter: Zoe Hughes; siblings: Otis Glenn, Jr., Elizabeth Winestock (James), Warren Glenn and Adrian Duncan; aunt: Betty Lasseter and a host of other relatives and many sorrowing friends.
