

Acknowledgments

We, the family of the late Vanessa Johnson Tremble, would like to extend our deepest gratitude for the many expressions of love, kindness, prayers and support shown to us during this time of loss. Whether you visited, called, sent a card or a floral tribute, prepared a meal, or simply lifted us in prayer, we are sincerely thankful.

Your presence and compassion have brought comfort to our hearts, and we are reminded that love truly lives on through the lives we touch.

May God bless and keep each of you in perfect peace.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they Thou preparest
a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Life Story

Order of Service

Vanessa Johnson Tremble was born on January 7, 1954, in Jacksonville, Florida to Carol McDonald and Ernest Johnson. She was educated in the Duval County School System and attended Stanton Senior High School.

Vanessa dedicated over twenty years of her life to the automotive factory industry at Joy Serve, where she was known for her reliability, strong work ethic and gracious spirit. After retirement, she continued to serve her family and community with the same level of excellence through her caring nature and dedication. She found joy in serving others and used her talents to bring warmth and beauty to those around her.

Vanessa was united in holy matrimony with her husband, Ronald Tremble. Together, they built a legacy rooted in love, hard work and faith. She was a devoted follower of Christ, and a faithful member of West Jacksonville Church of God in Christ. She also fellowshiped with St. Peter's Missionary Baptist Church. Her love for old-school gospel music reflected her deep spiritual roots.

Vanessa had a heart for thrifting, home decorating, and remodeling. She especially enjoyed transforming ordinary spaces into places of comfort and joy. Her eye for beauty and her passion for creating a peaceful home environment were expressions of her loving and thoughtful personality.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Ronald Tremble; parents: Ernest Johnson and Carol McDonald and brothers: Ruben Culler, Ernest Johnson, Jr., and Gregory Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her beloved children: Katana Campbell, Pergonnias Love and William Brown (Ema); grandchildren: Ron'Neyka Knighten, Kendall Campbell, Andrea Grant, Pergonnias Love, Jr., Lasharia Love, La'liyaha Love, Adonis Love, Ja'baraus Love, Jasmine Brown, Keenan Brown, Trinity Brown, Sion Brown and Joah Brown; siblings: Lavelda Johnson, Derrick Johnson, Lorenzo Johnson and Patricia Johnson; devoted and beloved godson: Terrence "Terry" Green; devoted and beloved god sister: Parthenia Sailor; sisters-in-law: Lisa, Nita, and Juanita; fourteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends whose lives she touched with love, laughter and grace.

Vanessa lived a life marked by love, faith and grace. Her legacy of compassion and devotion will forever remain in the hearts of those who were privileged to know her. She now rests in the presence of the Lord, having fought the good fight and finished her course with dignity and strength.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." – Psalm 23:6
