

A MOTHER'S GENTLE TOUCH

In the stillness of the evening, your voice we hear,
A gentle whisper, always near.
Your laughter rings in every breeze,
Your love, a warmth that never leaves.

You taught us strength, you taught us grace,
In every challenge, we see your face.
Through tears and joy, you stood so tall,
A guiding light through it all.

Though you're gone, your spirit stays,
In every dawn, in every day.
We'll carry you, Mom, in all we do,
Forever grateful for loving you.

THE ESSENCE OF HER LIFE
SISTER ANGELA IVY BUTLER

Sister Angela Ivy Butler, a wonderfully blessed mother, grand-mother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend; answered the call of the Lord Friday afternoon, April 25, 2025.

She was born October 2, 1956, in Jacksonville, Florida to Frances Hartley and Jimmie Lee Martin. Angela attended the local schools of Duval County, matriculating through Forest Park Elementary, John Gorie Jr. High, and Eugene Butler High School.

In high school, she was a champion athlete who enjoyed basketball, baseball and running track. Musically inclined, she participated in the Symphonic Band playing the clarinet. She was known as the greatest swing partner on any dance floor.

After high school, she received a certification in hospitality from Miami-Dade Hospitality Institute.

Angela was an employee of the Hickory House and Swisher Cigar Factory for many years.

Angela accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was baptized in Emanuel Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor S. L. Badger. She later joined Peace Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor A. L. Webster. Angela served faithfully and enthusiastically in many capacities: choir member, usher, Sunday School Teacher with the Little Angels, Women's Ministry, and District #2 under Deacon Jimmie Royals.

Angela was married for many years to Carey A. Butler. She leaves us with many fun-filled memories of laughter. She lived a passionate and spirited life. She was a loyal supporter and cheerleader of all her children, grandchildren, family and friends. She was known for her jugs of pennies at her grandchildren's athletic games. She was an avid reader who loved dancing, traveling extensively and playing cards. She was an ace card player that no challenger could stand. Most of all, she fervently served her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She leaves vibrant memories of an exuberant life and a beautiful legacy of family. We will always cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her father: Jimmie Lee Martin; son: Terrance Calvin Maddox; sisters: Kimberly Maddox and Donna Maddox.

She is survived by her loving and devoted children: Sharon L. Turner, Edward R. Martin III, Artis Maddox (Leslie), Jovan F. Maddox Sr. (Patrice), Mark Maddox (Palcia), Sheria S. Maddox and Karen A. Butler (Fredrick); grandchildren: Freshawn Turner, Lashawnda Turner, Fred Turner III, Sarena Turner, Okiria Alexander, Elasia Martin, Elani Martin, Ya'Kyjah Maddox, Chini'ya Kearse, Ariel Maddox, Yasmyr Maddox, Artis Maddox Jr., Treyvon Maddox, Faith Maddox, Jovan Maddox Jr., Devron Maddox, Le'Ajah Maddox, Ja'Kaila Maddox, Jaeden Maddox, Janelle Maddox, Merci Maddox, Legaci Maddox, Kyambria Maddox, Malachi Maddox, Le'Asia Cushion, Fredrick Roberts Jr., Rodrick Roberts, Ja'Kayla Roberts, Kendrick Roberts and Ja'Kaylyn Roberts; great-grandchildren: Ah'Mir A.
