

Why Am I Complaining?

My cross is not too heavy,
My road is not too rough
Because God walks beside me
And to know this is enough.
And though it get so lonely
I know I'm not alone,
For the Lord God is my father.
So, though I'm tired and weary
And I wish my race were run,
God will only terminate it
When my work on earth is done.
So let me stop complaining
About my road of care,
For God will always lighten it
When it gets too much to bear.
And if it does not ease my load,
He will give me strength to bear it.
For God in love and mercy
Is always near to share it.

THE LIFE
STORY

JUDY

Elder Judy May, affectionately known as Judy, was born on March 13, 1952, in Center, Texas, to the parents of Eddie and Bonnie Perkins. As a devout Christian, Judy's life was marked by her deep love of God and family. On April 25, 1974, Judy married Harold May, the love of her life. Their bond remained unbroken for thirty-four years until his passing in 2008.

As a woman of strong faith, Judy's ordination as a Minister at United Faith Church in Alexandria, Virginia, served as a pivotal moment that strengthened her and her family's connection to God. Initially of the Pentecostal faith, this began her steadfast commitment to engaging and facilitating bible studies and quizzes, Sunday School services, prayer lines, and even "shut-ins"; all while spreading the gospel of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Being a prior resident of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Alexandria, Virginia, Glens Falls, New York, and Jacksonville, Florida, she was a guiding light for many, always ready to offer support and spiritual guidance. Those familiar with Judy would agree that she was known for her resilient spirit, protective nature and creative soul. As the second eldest sibling, she played a significant role in raising her brothers and sisters and later extended that care to their children. Judy treasured her family and eagerly traveled to spend time with them. She was also a loyal friend, always willing to lend a helping hand. She enjoyed art and crafting and possessed a true passion for writing.

Judy was preceded in death by her father: Eddie Perkins; mother: Bonnie Perkins; beloved husband: Harold May; daughter: Nina Perkins; sister: Denise Perkins Paul and son-in-law: Kerry Daniels.

Judy passed away peacefully on May 1, 2025, in Jacksonville, Florida, at the age of 73.

She will be lovingly remembered by her three children: Natasha Perkins, Timothy (Heather) May, and Teddrick May; four grandchildren: Latara Perkins, Kurtis Daniels, Jermaine Daniels, and Nina May; two great-grandchildren: Layla Thomas and Clarence J. Thomas; six siblings: Eddie M. Perkins, Bechelle Perkins, Darrell Perkins, Efrem Perkins, Carleen Young, and Valery Profit and numerous other cherished family members and friends.

Judy's legacy of love, care and unwavering faith will continue to inspire all who knew her.
