ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family would like to sincerely thank everyone for their love, patience, support and understanding during their time of need. All thoughts and prayers are greatly appreciated. May God continue to bless each of you is our prayer.

Your demeanor is soft. Your smile is quiet. In a room filled with people, if no one is looking You will quietly exit Because you don't like extra attention. The devil mistakes you as soft until-until he touches your cubs. You are one of God's secret attacks on the enemy. Because he always underestimate you may I. You only devour when the devil attacks those you love then you quietly walk back and watch. God's covering are you is a small lion with a big lion in the background. You are a blessed woman of God robed in royalty and finesse. A secret fierce lioness. God's secret weapon for the enemy.

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set me free.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.

LIFE & LEGACY

Pastor Singus Davis was born on March 4, 1962, to Mildred and Alonzo Dozier and passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, pastor, and friend, she leaves behind a powerful legacy of faith, service and love.

A proud graduate of Robert E. Lee High School, Singus pursued higher education with determination, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Theology. Her life was a testament to the belief that faith and hard work can shape a purposeful life.

Pastor Singus was married to Pastor Clarence Davis, Jr., with whom she co-founded both Davis Transportation and Ephesians Community Church, where she served faithfully as Co-Pastor. Her ministry extended far beyond the pulpit. She worked tirelessly as a servant to her family, congregation, and community.

She was blessed with three children: Kenneth Gerard Henderson, II, David Michael Henderson, and Candace Elise Henderson. In her personal and spiritual journey, she made it her mission to uplift others. One of her proudest efforts was the creation of The Women of Power Program at the Liberty Center, founded alongside her dear friend, Sadie Barnes. With the help of beloved church friends, the program provided nourishment, clothing, encouragement and spiritual guidance to countless women in need.

Singus had a deep love for music, particularly music that ministered to the soul. In 2001, she fulfilled a dream by releasing her own gospel CD. A true coffee connoisseur, she found joy in her Starbucks breaks, often using those moments to recharge and reflect.

Her unwavering faith, compassionate heart, and vibrant spirit touched everyone she met. She lived her life as a beacon of light, and though she is no longer with us, her light will continue to shine in all who knew her. She was preceded in death by her brother: Ronald; her beloved eldest son: Kenneth Gerard Henderson, II; grandparents and parents.

Pastor Singus Davis is survived by her loving husband: Pastor Clarence Davis, Jr.; sons: David Michael Henderson (Patrizia) and Carlos Green; daughter: Candace Elise Henderson; cherished grandchildren: Ja'Maine, Mya and Megan; sister: Regina Grayson (Frank); sister-in-law: Heidi Dozier; nieces: Keanna L. Williams and Janine Dozier; nephews: Lemont Dozier and Franklin Grayson; and a host of aunts, uncles, grand-nieces and nephews, cousins, church family, and sorrowing friends.
