

A Daughter's Farewell

The world feels muted, colors dimmed and gray,
Since you, dear Mother, slipped away from us,
No more gentle touch, your loving gaze,
But memories surround us, in a golden haze,

We see you in the sunshine, hear you in the breeze,
Your laughter echoes softly through the trees.
You planted seeds of kindness, strength, and grace,
And nurtured dreams within this cherished space.

Though tears may fall and sorrow fills our hearts,
We know your love will never truly depart.
You guide us still, a star in darkest night,
A beacon shining ever, pure and bright,

Thank you, Mom, for all you've given us,
For love that sets our spirits at peace,
We will carry you within, forever nearby,
And whisper the dear name and calm our fears.

Always on our minds Forever in our hearts

Your Loving Daughters

La'Quita's STORY

La'Quita Reed-Jackson, affectionately known as "Queet", was born on August 27, 1975, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Vera Brown-Floyd and Ronnie Moore. She began her education at Sherwood Elementary School, continued at John Gorrie Junior High, and graduated with pride from Robert E. Lee High School as a member of the Class of 1994. She later pursued higher education at Jones College.

La'Quita built a strong professional career, serving for many years as an Operations Manager at Owl Inc. Transportation. Her leadership, dedication and warm personality left a lasting impact on her colleagues and everyone that she worked with.

A woman of deep faith, La'Quita worshipped at Faith United Miracle Temple alongside her beloved grandmother and was a faithful member of Greater Hope Ministries, Inc., serving as a Deaconess and the Financial Secretary. She was also an active member of the Free and Accepted Modern Masons, Inc. and the Order of the Eastern Star, where she found both sisterhood and purpose.

La'Quita was preceded in death by her father: Ronnie Moore; her maternal grandmother: Maudie Lee Reed and her paternal grandparents: Cornelius and Clotie Moore.

She leaves behind many who loved her dearly including her two loving children: Qua'Lexus Cross and Erieyl' Reed; devoted mother: Vera Brown-Floyd (Franklin); siblings: Anthony Ferguson (Zury), Jeff Floyd, LaToya Moore and Tamika Dukes; special cousins: Donnie Walker (Lexi), Dionne Walker, Donte Walker, J'Lah McCoy and Dreyden Walker; best friends: Sam Smith, Ida Jackson, Tameka Linton and Shannon Nelson; special friend: Robert Dawsey and a host of nieces, nephews, godchildren, cousins, extended family and friends.
