

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me, I'm finally at rest,
In Heaven's arms, I'm truly blessed.
My work is done, my race is run,
I've found peace beyond the sun.

Remember my love, the laughs we shared,
The way I listened, the way I cared.
Though I've gone, I'm still near
In your heart, I'll always be here.

With love everlasting and spirit so free,
I'll live on through you, lovingly.

Life Story

Ms. Veronica Joyce Vickers, affectionately known as “Ronnie”, was born on April 21, 1958, in Jacksonville, Florida to the parents of Marcella Sampson and Samuel Felder. She attended George Washington Carver Elementary School, Northwestern Middle School and graduated from Ribault High School in 1975. Veronica attended Bethune-Cookman College (BCC) and later obtained certifications as an Esthetician and a Nail Instructor. She worked as a Licensed Nail Technician for twenty plus years and was a Nail Instructor at Florida State College at Jacksonville for several years. Veronica was also self-employed as a Cosmetologist and Owner of Legacy Day Spa and Nail Boutique.

Veronica grew up in Simpson Memorial United Methodist Church and Greater Macedonia Baptist Church. She was married to Anthony Vickers for six years and Robert Davis, Sr. for three years.

Veronica “Ronnie” Vickers was a woman of grace, wisdom, and unwavering faith. She loved the Lord deeply and genuinely, and her walk with Him was the foundation of her life. Ronnie found great joy in spending time with her family and loved ones. She always offered heartfelt encouragement and a listening ear to anyone in need. She had a natural gift for making people feel seen and heard and everyone loved her words of inspiration in which she touched countless lives.

Ronnie had a passion for shopping and decorating, and she brought beauty and warmth into every space she entered. She dedicated many years of service as the Director of Student Union Life at Edward Waters College, where she empowered and uplifted generations of students. She later served at Gateway Rehab Center as a drug court counselor offering guidance and hope to those on their journey toward healing. Even in retirement, her calling to serve continued as she became a loving caretaker to the elderly.

A proud and faithful member of the Ladies of Peace #1088 and the Jewels Social Club, Ronnie exemplified sisterhood, compassion, and strength. Her legacy of faith, service and love will live on through every life she touched.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Anthony Vickers; mother: Marcella Sampson and father: Samuel Felder.
