

I MISS YOU DAD

I thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday
and days before that, too.

I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories
and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake
with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
I have you in my heart.

Love,

Stacey

PSALM 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF JOHN H. Pierce

Mr. John H. Pierce was born on July 19, 1953, in Louisville, Georgia, to Mr. Ernest Pierce and Mrs. Daisy Lou Pierce. In the early 1970's, he moved to Augusta, Georgia, where he began a lifelong career as a Master Brick Mason, contributing to the construction of numerous homes and businesses.

Approximately forty-five years ago, Mr. Pierce relocated to Jacksonville, Florida, where he continued his work as a Master Brick Mason until his retirement.

He was a devoted member of Feed My Lamb the Word of God Ministry in Jacksonville, Florida. Mr. Pierce had a passion for music, he enjoyed singing and playing the guitar at church, at home, and with musical bands.

He was preceded in death by his father: Ernest Pierce; mother: Daisy Lou Pierce; brothers: Mack, Robert, Rayfield and Willie Lee Pierce and sisters: Daisy L. Brown, Mary Pierce and Luretha Pierce.

Mr. Pierce is survived by his children: Timothy Pierce, Stacey (Anthony) Norton and Joshea (Rolondo) Hackley; brothers: Eddie and Ernest Pierce; sisters: Betty Pierce, Bernice Pierce and Mae Devoe; long-term companion: Ms. Charlene Beasley and a host of other relatives and friends who will continue to cherish his memory.
