Dion's Story

Dion L. Young, affectionately known as "Primetime," was born on January 28, 1979, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Theresa and Marcus Young. He was a beloved son, brother, father, grandfather and friend, whose presence was a gift to all who knew him. He grew up in the heart of this city, attending Wolfson and Ribault High Schools, where he built lasting friendships and first showed signs of the strong, driven man he would become.*

A proud graduate into manhood, Dion found his calling on the water, working as a Merchant Seaman, a career that suited his hardworking spirit and bold determination. If Dion wanted something, he didn't wait, he went for it.

He was a true go-getter, never afraid to hustle for what he believed in, and always ready to help someone else get on their feet even if he didn't have much himself. That's just the kind of man he was.

Dion was known for always being clean and sharp in how he carried himself. He had a style that was all his own. But beyond the clothes and cool demeanor, it was his bright, room-lighting smile that people never forgot. He had a way of making everyone feel welcome, and that magnetism, especially with the ladies, was unmatched.

A true Jacksonville native, through and through, Dion bled garnet and gold for his Florida State Seminoles and rode hard for his Jacksonville Jaguars you couldn't tell him anything about his teams. He stood by them fiercely, win or lose, with the same loyalty he gave to the people he loved.

Dion was preceded in death by his loving parents: Marcus and Theresa Young; cherished grandparents: Mildred Joy and Lee Joy.

He leaves behind his legacy and love in the lives of those who will carry his memory forward. Left to cherish his memories are his son: Isaiah Young; grandchild: Kaysen Young; sister: Ebony Young-Williams (Jamie); nieces and nephews: Makayla, Megan, and Major Williams; as well as a large extended family of devoted aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends whose lives he touched deeply.

Dion lived life on his own terms bold, kind, and unforgettable. Though he may no longer be here with us physically, his spirit lives on in every life he touched, every smile he gave, and every memory we hold. We will miss him deeply, but we are forever grateful to have shared this life with him.
