

REMEMBERING OUR DAD

As we reflect on our dad's life, we can't help but feel an overwhelming sense of gratitude. He wasn't just an amazing father; he was an incredible human being. His love, wisdom, and strength continue to guide us, and his memory is a source of comfort and inspiration. Even though he's gone, his spirit lives on in those he touched, and his legacy will always be a part of us.

OUR GRANDAD

The love we have for our grandfather
Will never fade away.
We'll think of him, our special friend
Throughout each passing day.
We'll walk into the room
And see his empty chair.
Although we know he's resting
We'll feel his presence there.
The memories of his laughter,
His warm and loving smile,
His eyes were full of happiness,
His heart is that of a child.
Memories are forever
Whether laughter or of tears,
Memories we will treasure
Through all the years to come.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of the late Frank "Mose" McCall, Sr., would like to take this time to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the many expressions of love, prayers, and support during this time of loss. Your presence, calls, messages, and acts of kindness have brought us comfort and peace.

We are deeply grateful to God for each of you and for the strength He provides through His people. As we celebrate the life of our beloved, we are reminded of the words of Psalm 34:18 "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May God bless each of you for your compassion and love.

LIFE & LEGACY

Frank McCall, Sr., affectionately known as “Mose”, was born on September 30, 1945, in Sylvania, Georgia, to Lonnie and Lottie Dukes McCall. He attended Arnette Elementary and Middle Schools, laying the foundation for a life defined by hard work, deep love for family, and unwavering commitment to others.

On March 30, 1965, Frank married the love of his life, Willie Mae McCall. Their union was blessed with children, grandchildren, and generations of love. Together, they built a home filled with joy, strength, and unwavering support. Mose was a devoted provider to his family who worked as a truck driver for PepsiCo, totaling over forty years. Here, he was known for his commitment and work ethic which was sure to leave a lasting impression. But Mose’s impact went far beyond his job. He was the heart of every room known for his warm smile, quick wit and generous spirit.

A true caretaker by nature, Mose was always willing to provide a helping hand. With his unmatched handyman skills, whether fixing things with his hands or lifting spirits with his words, he touched countless lives with his lively personality. He loved to celebrate life, and his presence brought joy to every gathering. His legacy of love, generosity, and fun will live on in all who had the blessing of knowing him.

Frank was preceded in death by his beloved wife: Willie Mae McCall; parents: Lonnie and Lottie Dukes McCall; daughter: Wilma Lee Jones; great-grandson: Ronmehn Robinson; brothers: Edward McCall, Fred McCall, and Joe Lewis McCall; sisters: Mertis Lillian McCall and Jo Ann McCall Johnson and his cherished niece: Nicole Crumbly.

He leaves behind a loving family and a legacy of cherished memories, especially in the hearts of his devoted children: Frankie Axson (James), Dianna McCall (Tim) and Frank McCall, Jr. (Stephenar); grandchildren: Shantiece McCall, Cassandra Fain (Jason), Shalonda Jones, Shajamia Axson (Travis), Trevon McCall, Marcus Davis, Coniah McCall, Jamiron Axson, Darren Seraphin, Aleesa Matthew and Tiara Matthew; great-grandchildren: Bri’Auncey Stewart, Brian Stewart, Byron Stewart, Ronshanay Robinson, Serenity Loyd, Rhythm Brown, Kiayanna Jones, Keyion Jones, Khalil Jones, Lianna Jones, Dorian Seraphin, Justice Nesbit, and Jordyn Wells; great-great-grandchildren: Kyrie Phillips and Kazi Brown; sisters: Gussie McCall, Eloise McCall and Ola Mae McCall; aunt: Caldonia Frank; uncles: Burnie Jones (Dorothy), Joe Lewis Jones and Titus Jones (Cille); nieces and nephews: Craig McCall (Yolanda), Alexandra Williams and Sarah Ann McCall and a host of other cherished relatives and friends.

Frank “Mose” McCall’s legacy of love, laughter, and generosity will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew him. He was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.
