MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no tears in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little but not for long
Not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me but let me go*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*

LIFE STORY LARRY

Larry Hudson, affectionately known as Huttoe, was born on November 11, 1952, in Orlando, Florida, to Jessie Bell Hudson and James Smith. He was raised in the close-knit community of Eatonville, Florida specifically in Catalina Park where his laughter and joyful spirit made him the life of every gathering. He loved to laugh and, more than anything, loved to make others laugh.

Larry attended Hungerford Elementary and later graduated from Wymore Tech, Class of 1970, where he proudly played football and basketball.

From the age of 14, Larry was no stranger to hard work. He spent 26 dedicated years working alongside his adopted father, Taylor Morris, and was later employed by GLF Construction.

In the early 1970s, Larry met the love of his life, Elese. Their bond was undeniable, and together they built a beautiful life. The couple relocated to Jacksonville, Florida, in the early 1990s, where they raised their family and lived for two decades. Though they eventually returned to their hometown, they found their way back to Jacksonville in 2023. Larry and Elese shared over 40 years of love, commitment, and joyful companionship.

Larry was a faithful member of the Apostolic Church of Faith under the leadership of Pastor Gloria Harp. Known far and wide for his culinary skills, Larry earned the titles of "Grill Master" and "Barbecue King." Whether for church events, family gatherings, neighbors, or even strangers, he was always eager to fire up the grill and serve with love. To him, no one was a stranger.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife: Elese Hudson and his brother: Norris Hudson.

Larry leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter. Cherishing his memories are his children: Angela (Roosevelt) Williams, Nicole Hudson, Larry Hudson, Jr., Taylee Hudson and Jeremy Hudson; grandchildren: Keona, Nikkia, Renee, Jamehl, Zion, Zikia, Michelle, and Makai; six great-grandchildren; siblings: Arthur Hudson, Roger Hudson, LuRetha King, Wanda Smith, and Cynthia Smith; and a host of other relatives and dear friends.
