

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw that he was getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around him
and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched him suffer,
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes "the best."

LIFE & LEGACY

Larry D. Brown, affectionately known as Boogie, was born in Woodbury, Georgia, to the late James Brown and Eva Clara Slaton. He later relocated to Jacksonville, Florida, where he attended local schools of Duval County. It was there, at Andrew Jackson High School, that he met the love of his life, Carolyn Brown.

Larry was employed with International Marine as an Industrial Applicator and faithfully served as a Night Shift Supervisor. He was baptized at an early age and carried his faith with humility, kindness, and a deep love for his family throughout his life.

Larry found joy in life's simple pleasures like watching wrestling every Monday night, spending quiet hours fishing, indulging in his favorite candy Reese's Pieces, or making lasting memories with his beloved grandson. He especially cherished his visits with the Moore family in Sanderson, Florida.

Boogie entered eternal rest on August 9, 2025. Known for his generous heart, infectious laughter, and unwavering love for his family and friends, Boogie touched the lives of everyone who knew him. His legacy will live on in the memories we hold dear and the stories we continue to share. Larry's presence, wisdom, and warm spirit will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents: James Brown and Eva Clara Slaton; brother: Hilden (Marie) Bryant; sister: Sharon Ann (Kenneth) Moore and sons: Larry D. Jones and Anthony Brinson.

Larry departs, leaving behind cherished memories with his children: Tomeshia (Dearl, Sr.) Harmon; Tarshia Anderson, Tonya Jones and Yolanda Brinson; grandchildren: Deira Harmon, Destinee Anderson, Dearl Harmon, II, Taylor Jackson, Rondrea McBride and Ronnariah McBride; great-grandchildren: Aria Barnes and Ka'mazi Tyson; brothers: Stanley Bryant and Artis Brown; bonus daughter: Tamika Harley; bonus granddaughter: Ariyan Green; special friends: Genise Franklin and Clifford Williams, Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends who loved him dearly including grandchildren and great-grandchildren who held a special place in his heart.
