We, the family of Beverly Wallace, would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, thoughts and prayers have helped greatly during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you, is our prayer.

Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry for me. I will be ok.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me. It was just my time.
But I will see you someday on the other side.
Don't cry for me. For I have no fear
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me. This is not the end,
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.*

THE ESSENCE OF HER LIFE

Beverly

Beverly Seymore was born on June 19, 1950, in Cuthbert, Georgia, to Mattie and John Seymore. As a young girl, she moved to Jacksonville, Florida, where she grew up in a loving and supportive family. Beverly graduated from Duval County Public Schools in 1968 and later she worked as a housekeeper for Cathedral Senior Citizen Services, dedicating many years to her profession before retiring in the early 2000's.

Beverly was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose warmth and kindness touched all who knew her. Known for her vibrant personality and generous spirit, she had a way of making everyone feel welcomed and valued. Her conversations brought comfort, her laughter filled rooms, and her presence brought light into every life she touched.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents: Mattie and John Seymore; sister: Bernice Garmon; brothers: Bobby, Donald ("Duck") and Bernard Seymore and her cherished son: Bruce Seymore.

Beverly's legacy lives on through her children: Dexter Seymore and Calvin Seymore; grandchildren: Quaydra, Jasmine, Santisha, Shanika (Ricky), Deltwaune, Danielle, Bruce, Jr., Ashley, Tyarra, Garrett and Diamond; thirteen great-grandchildren; daughters-in-law: Gloria Holmes and Lovely Seymore; brothers: Elvis Seymore and Michael Seymore and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends. Among her many cherished friendships, especially three held a special place in her heart: Ms. Sally, Mr. Robert, and Ms. Yvonne.

Beverly Seymore will be remembered for her strength, compassion, and unwavering love for her family and friends. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who were blessed to know her.
