Bishop Joel Robinson, Officiating

Isaac Cannon was born on January 11, 1945, in Brunswick, Georgia, to Wallace Cannon and Clara Cannon.

Isaac retired from a dedicated career as a salesman in the milk industry, where he was known for his hard work, integrity, and warm personality. Beyond his professional life, Isaac was a man full of life, music, and joy. He had a deep passion for fishing and gardening, and he never missed a chance to dance to good old school music. His laughter and strong character left a lasting impression on all who knew him.

His wife peacefully entered eternal rest on April 17, 2019, and he's now reunited with his beloved wife, Carolyn Cannon, with whom he shared fifty-one cherished years of marriage.

Isaac was preceded in death by his loving wife: Carolyn Cannon; father: Wallace Cannon and mother: Clara Cannon.

Left to cherish his fond memories are his daughter: Tammy L. Cannon Seye (Samba); grandchildren: Aramis C. McGriff (Devron Harmon) and Darius A. McGriff (Torien); great-grandchildren: Damier Harmon and Autumn Harmon; sister: Frances Badgett; brother: Wallace Cannon, Jr.; sisters-in-law: Margaret Peyton, Brenda Nixon (Hubert) and Latonya Clark; brothers-in-law: Jessie Lowe and Hubert Nixon; uncle: Alonzo Blake; aunt: Orrie Mae Sneed and a host of other relatives and friends.

Isaac's legacy of love, resilience, and joy will live on in the hearts of his family and friends. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered.

Recessional	I Did It My Way	By Frank Sinatra

"For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."

- 2 Timothy 4:6-8
