ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Porter Family extends our deepest appreciation to all who have supported us during this time of bereavement. Your expressions of sympathy, acts of kindness, and heartfelt condolences have brought comfort and strength to our hearts. We are sincerely grateful for the prayers, visits, cards, meals, and every thoughtful gesture shared with us. Your compassion has been a source of light in our darkest moments, and we are truly humbled by the love shown to our family. As we continue to honor the memory of our beloved, we take solace in knowing that we are surrounded by such a caring and supportive community. Thank you for walking with us through this journey of grief and healing.

With Profound Love and Gratitude,
THE PORTER FAMILY

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

- Matthew 11:28-30

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF RANDELL

Randell Glenn Porter was born on November 20, 1972, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Randall Harold and Brenda Shields. He grew up in Duval County, where he attended local schools and formed lifelong friendships that stayed with him through the years.

Randell shared a beautiful love story with his wife, Patricia Porter. Married for twenty-five wonderful years, their bond was built on faith, loyalty, laughter and deep love. Together, they raised a blended and beautiful family that meant the world to him.

Randell was a hardworking man who spent over thirty years with Seafarers International. He worked his way up to become a Senior Able-Bodied Seaman and Deck Crew Foreman with roles that suited his leadership and strong work ethic. He took pride in mentoring others and retired with the respected title of Bosun. Even after retirement, Randell didn't slow down he continued working with Action Towing and Recovery, always staying active and dedicated.

More than his work, Randell was a man of faith. He gave his life to Christ over twenty years ago at Philadelphia Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor Harold LaGree. He was a proud member of the male choir and District #4. Randell loved attending Sunday school, Bible Study, and weekly teachers' meetings. He was always growing in his walk with the Lord and supporting his church family however he could.

Outside of work and church, Randell truly cherished the simple joys in life. He recently discovered a love for fishing, and he treasured time with his wife, children and grandchildren. Whether it was family gatherings, watching Jaguars games or detailing his cars until they shined, he found happiness in the moments that mattered most.

Randell was preceded in death by his daughter: Miranda Porter; brother: Jackie Jones; sisters-in-law: Mary Jerido and Addreisha Jones; grandmothers: LouNora Porter and Helen and father-in-law: Walter White.

On September 7, 2025, Randell peacefully departed this life, stepping into eternity and into the arms of the Lord. Though he is no longer with us in body, his love, laughter and legacy live on in all who knew him.

He leaves behind a family who loved him deeply including his devoted wife: Patricia Porter; children: Jahmon Humphrey, Jahuan Harris, Janae Brown, JahQuan Wright, Jahleah White, Rahkayla Porter and Randell Porter, Jr.; thirty-four grandchildren who adored their "Papa"; parents: Randall Harold and Brenda Shields (Greg Green); mother-in-law: Geraldine White; fathers-in-law: Alfred Jerido and Freddrick Potts; sisters: Tracy (Teddy) Young and Baldie (Charlie) Campbell; sisters-in-law: Rondell Gordan, Nikita Wynn, Shuronda (David) Henderson, Tameka (Raqib) Attar, Brittany White, Breaisa White and Kesha Robinson; brothers-in-law: Myles Frazier, Alexander Cromer, Daniel Denmark, Walter White, Jr., Johnny White, Yuri Robinson, Wesley Potts, and Jerry Jerido, Jr.; godbrother: Justin Ravenell and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, church family, and dear friends.

Randell's legacy is one of love, strength, faith, and dedication. His presence will be missed, but his spirit will remain in the hearts of all who had the blessing of knowing him.

"What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us." - Helen Keller
