A LIFE WELL-LIVED

A man is more than breath and bone,
He is the fire that makes a home.
He is the voice that calls us near,
The steady hand, the laugh we hear.
He may not walk a gentle way,
Yet leaves his mark on every day.
Through trials faced and battles fought,
He gave us strength that can't be taught.
His legacy is not in stone,
But in the lives he shaped, his own.
In children's eyes, in love's embrace,
In memories time cannot erase.
So let us honor, let us say:
He found his niche, he found his way.
And though his journey now is through,
His purpose lives in me, in you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There is great comfort in knowing that we are not alone in our time of need. The family of Robert Lee Patterson, Sr. wishes to express our heartfelt thanks for your calls, cards, kind words, and prayers. We are truly grateful for the expressions of love shown during our time of bereavement. We pray God's richest blessings upon each of you as you continue to keep our family in your prayers. LIFE'S JOURNEY

ROBERT^{LEE}

PATTERSON, SR.

Robert Lee Patterson, affectionately known as Bob, was born on July 14, 1942, in Meigs, Georgia as the beloved son of Arthur Patterson and Bernice Gibbs.

Robert was raised in Jacksonville, Florida, where his strong spiritual foundation was established at The House of God, Church of the Living God under the guidance of Elder J.M. Tarver. He was educated in the Duval County Public School System. Later, he went on to serve his country honorably in the United States Army.

After his military service, Robert married Carrie Mae Dempsey, and together they relocated to the Northeast. He built a successful twenty-five-year career with UPS as a long-distance truck driver. Even after retiring from UPS, Robert's passion for the open road continued as he worked independently as an owner-operator until his health no longer allowed.

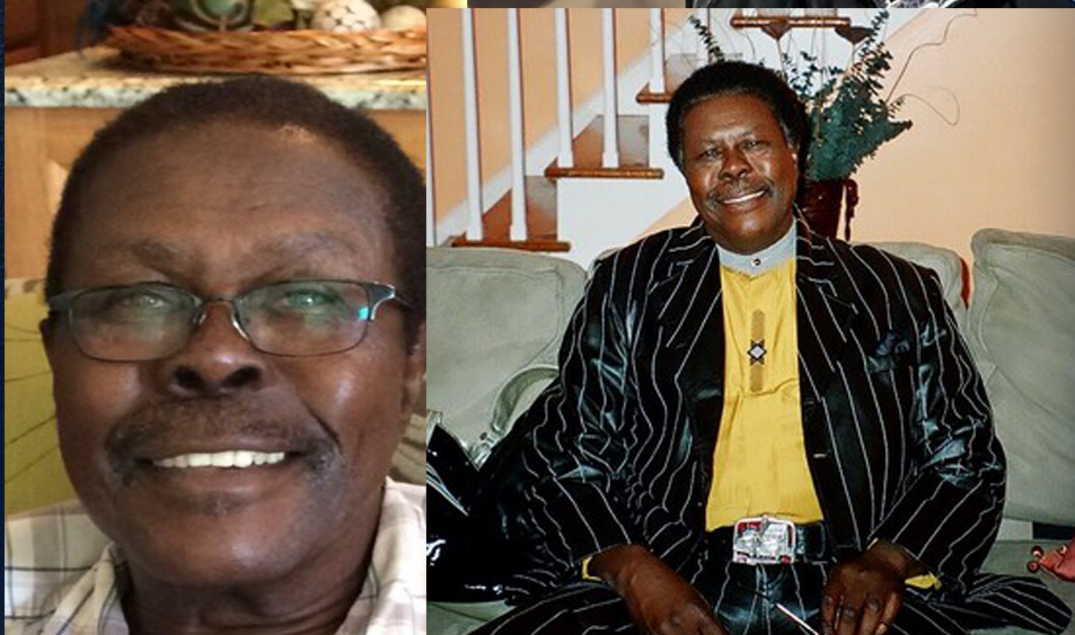

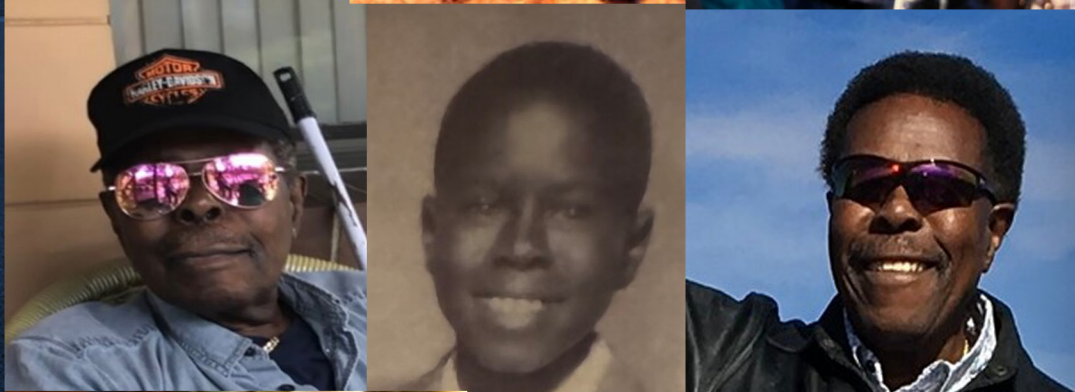

Bob was a man who truly loved life. He cherished time with his family and found joy in traveling and riding motorcycles. His adventurous spirit and warm personality left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

Robert passed away peacefully on September 13, 2025.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Arthur Patterson and Bernice Gibbs; grandparents: Frank Gibbs, Elvenia Gibbs Bennett, Isaiah and Doretha Patterson; aunts: Elouise Rogers, Francenia Burks, Hester Wiggs, Maudria Bratcher and Zada Nixon; uncles: Clyde Gibbs and Samuel Gibbs and cousins: Robbie James and Landie Lee Latson.

Robert leaves behind to treasure his memory, his children: Phyllis A. Johnson, Deborah D. Patterson, Robert Lee Patterson, Jr., Chazz A. Patterson, Chance A. Patterson and Derrick Patterson; siblings: Vivian Patterson Chapman (Johnnie), Gloria Patterson, David Walden, Jr. and Norman Winn; devoted friend and partner: Arlene Bethel; his former wives: Carrie Mae Patterson and Candi Patterson and a host of a loving circle of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and dear friends.

Robert will be remembered for his unwavering love for his family, his resilience, and his enduring passion for the open road. His legacy lives on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
