

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

Flower Attendants

Family and Friends

Acknowledgements

The Medina and Range Families would like to extend our deepest gratitude for the prayers, kind words, heartfelt messages, and generous support you shared with us during our time of loss.

Your love has been a source of comfort, and your prayers have truly lifted our spirits. We are reminded that God's grace is present through the compassion of others, and we feel incredibly blessed to have been surrounded by such a caring community.

As we continue to walk this path of grief and healing, we hold close the warmth of your support and the light of faith that reminds us, our loved one is now resting in the arms of our Heavenly Father.
Thank you for being a part of this

With Love and Gratitude,

The Medina and Range Families

Forever in Our Hearts

We were there so you weren't alone,
We watched you transition to your home.
It wasn't easy seeing you like that,
We wanted to save you as matter of fact!
Even though you were ready to leave,
It has been hard while we grieve.
It's still seven girls in our mind,
You'll remain part of the click for a life time.
Don't worry sis, we got the kids,
Tay, Kito and Dee and grandkids.
We're glad you gave your life to God,
It makes this situation not so hard.
We love you sis and tell everyone, hello!
We will see you again in the beautiful meadow.

THE LIFE AND LEGACY
OF

Tammy MEDINA

*"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want."
– Psalm 23:1*

Tammy Medina, lovingly known as Tammy to all who knew her, was born on December 2, 1969, in Jacksonville, Florida, to George Range and Joann Robinson. Later she was raised by her father, George and bonus mom, Maggie Range.

Tammy was a woman of quiet strength, gentle spirit, and boundless love. She grew up in Jacksonville and attended White House Elementary, Mary McLeod Bethune Middle School, and Edward H. White High School. Her journey through life was one marked not by titles or grand achievements, but by the lives she touched with her heart. For ten years, she worked at the Ramada Inn, where her kindness, work ethic, and joyful spirit made her beloved by both coworkers and guests.

She was a faithful member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, where she found comfort and strength in her walk with Christ. Tammy's faith wasn't loud or boastful, it was lived. She carried God's light within her that shined through in every conversation, every smile, and every hug. She believed in the power of prayer, the importance of family, and the promise of God's grace.

Tammy, above all else, was a mother and grandmother whose love knew no bounds. Her children and grandchildren were her heart. Whether through a home-cooked meal, a listening ear, or simply her calming presence, Tammy made sure her family always knew how deeply they were loved. She created a home where everyone felt welcome, and where laughter and love were always present.

To know Tammy was to feel seen, heard, and valued. She had a way of making you feel like you were the only person in the room, even if she had a thousand things to do. Her spirit was magnetic people were naturally drawn to her. She loved deeply, forgave freely, and lived her life with grace.

On September 24, 2025, Tammy gently answered the Master's call and entered eternal rest in the arms of her Savior.

Tammy is now reunited in Heaven with her dear mother, Joann Robinson, and is surely resting in peace, surrounded by light and love.

She leaves behind a legacy of love in her children: Edwin (Crystal) Medina, Jr., Samuel (Timia) Medina, Tamara Medina and Dequan Marsh, Sr. Her memory will live on through her cherished grandchildren: Dequan Marsh, Jr., Christian Marsh, Julian Marsh, Ava Marsh, Noah Marsh, Eli Marsh, Amara Marsh, Aden Medina, Devin Medina, Lyliauna Medina, J'Nilah Woods, JayVaughn Peak, Jada Wright and Jaden Stokes; parents: George (Maggie) Range; siblings: Patricia (Benjamin) Dwight, Angela Finn, Leroy (Annette) Holmes, George (Jan) Range, Lakesha (Greg) Henry, Shawn (Cedrick) Downer, Cynthia Range and Lanatasha (Ronald) Oglesby; nieces and nephews: Josh Henry, Justin Henry, Jacoby Henry, Nathan Holmes, Jr., Anquanette (Jerome) Smith, Stanley Olgesby, Camron Downer, James Smith, III, Justin Smith, Jayden Downer, Kinsley Downer, Cameron Hungerford, Donald Hungerford, Chance Smith, Dairion (Kristina) Range, Rhashina (Shereika) Williams, Michael (Melissa) Range, Rodney Williams and Corey Williams; aunts: Lease Ginn, Shelia White, Carrie White, Mary Tullis, Annie Jernigan and Bernice (Carnell) Graves; uncles: Grady Range, Henry White, Jr. and Gene Ginn; grandparents: Tommy Range, Grady Will Range, Etta Mae White and Henry White, Sr.; special friend: Ann Love and a host of other relatives and friends.

Though she may no longer walk beside us, her spirit lives on in every heart she touched. We find comfort in knowing that she is now dancing in Heaven, free from pain, embraced by the everlasting peace of her Creator.

"Well done, good and faithful servant... Enter into the joy of your Lord." – Matthew 25:23
