

HEAVEN'S GATE

Heaven's gate is open to receive me.

*I know one day this day would come,
but I didn't know it would be this soon.*

Sorry I had to leave my loved ones behind.

The Lord heard my cry and decided to take me home.

I am resting.

Remember me with the smile on my face that lights up the room.

I need you guys to lean on each other for comfort and live life to the fullest.

When you see the sunset

Always remember me on the other side.

THE LIFE OF KEMAR ANTHONY Malcolm

With hearts full of love and faith, we celebrate the beautiful life of Kemar Anthony Malcolm, who was born on September 13, 1988, in Savanna-la-Mar, Westmoreland, Jamaica, to proud parents Angella Lewis and Marcell Malcolm.

From his early years at Savanna-la-Mar Elementary and Middle Schools, through his graduation from Manning's High School in 2006, Kemar's light shone brightly. His journey then led him to the University of Maine, where he continued to grow in wisdom and grace.

Kemar was a hard-working and dedicated man who took pride in every role he held. He worked as a Dock Worker at Dillard's for eight years, served with joy and excellence at the Ponte Vedra Inn and Club from 2015 to 2025, and later shared his enthusiasm and warmth as a Sales Merchandiser with Coca-Cola from 2019 to 2025.

A faithful member of the Church of God, Kemar's faith guided his life and touched the hearts of all who knew him. His love for soccer, his infectious laughter, kind spirit, and unwavering respect for others made him a blessing to family and friends alike. Always caring and competitive, Kemar lived each day with purpose and heart.

On October 26, 2025, Kemar heard the gentle call of his Savior "Come to Me" and he peacefully answered. He now rests safely in the loving arms of Jesus, free from pain and filled with eternal joy.

Kemar leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and family. Those who will forever cherish his memory include his beloved son: Kaiden Malcolm; parents: Angella Lewis and Marcell Malcolm; brothers: Tion-Jay Malcolm and Sanjay Malcolm; grandmother: Muriel Walters; bonus children: Davhia and Malik and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and treasured friends.

Kemar's laughter, kindness, and gentle soul will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. Though he is gone from our sight, his spirit remains watching over his loved ones, guiding them with the same love and strength he shared in life.
