

“HER WINGS”

“Her wings were made of light,

Her spirit rose with grace.

Though gone from sight,

Her love leaves a warm embrace.

From ashes she was reborn,

An angel in eternal light,

Guiding us through each morn,

Forever shining bright.”

Odette's Story

Ms. Odette Rollins was born on May 29, 1975, in Georgetown, Guyana to Patricia Lovell and Mortimer Rollins.

She loved being a Massage Therapist and making people feel better by healing the pain in their body. She enjoyed exploring and taking adventures like traveling to a new city, even if just for a day.

Odette was a ray of light and a goofy person with a huge heart. She loved her family dearly and cherished each moment with her daughter, Jurnee. Odette also enjoyed reading, cooking, and bringing light into everyone's life.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother: Rita.

Left to cherish her memory is her daughter: Jurnee Ray; her unborn grandchild; parents: Patricia Lovell and Mortimer Rollins; aunts: Pamala, Paulette, Harriet, Shirley and Girly; uncles: Chris, Gary, Winston and Brian; nieces and nephews: Deliah, Elijah and RJ; siblings: Anthony Davids and Royal Davids and a host of other relatives and friends.
