Vincent's Story

Vincent L. Williams, born February 17, 1987, in Jacksonville, Florida, was the beloved son of Sandra Williams and Victor Brown. From childhood, he carried a God-given light one that lifted spirits, brought comfort, and made everyone feel loved. He attended West Jacksonville Elementary and Robert E. Lee High School, where he formed lifelong bonds.

Known as Bigg V, Vincent expressed his gifts through Bigg V Photography, Redline Fashion, and Smoke-N-DA-Air. His creativity, work ethic, and heart for others were reflections of the purpose God placed within him. He found joy in simple blessings, family, food, laughter, and a home filled with warmth.

In 2009, God blessed Vincent with the love of his life, Brandy Thomas. Their connection was divinely guided, and in 2016 they joined in Holy Matrimony, building a marriage rooted in faith, loyalty, and deep devotion.

Vincent loved fiercely and gave freely. He treated everyone like family, offering his time, strength, and compassion without hesitation. Raised in the church under Apostle Alexie R. Kelly, Vincent carried his faith throughout his life, holding onto joy and keeping a playful spirit.

He was preceded in eternal rest by his mother: Sandra Williams and brother: Tony Williams.

On November 11, 2025, in Jacksonville, Florida, Vincent gently transitioned from this life to eternal peace, resting safely in God's arms as his earthly journey came to a blessed close.

Those left to cherish his memories are his loving and devoted wife; Brandy Thomas-Williams; bonus children: Jadarius, Emory, Zion, Omarian and Montrelle; sister: Cassandra Williams; brother: Victor Williams; grandmother: Annie Williams; special cousins: Erick Williams and Lucious Williams; right hand men: Shedrick Rogers and Dereck Watley and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
