

FOR MY SISTER

She moved through this world
with a fire only God could light—
a hustler with a purpose,
a heart that loved hard,
a soul that never backed down.

She fought for her people
with everything in her,
poured herself into every moment,
every dream,
and every person she claimed as hers.

Determined was too small of a word
for the way she lived—
she pushed, she climbed, she conquered,
even when life tried to break her.

To know her
was to feel protected.
To love her
was to feel chosen.
To lose her
is to feel the world shift.

But her spirit walks beside us,
unfading, unbroken—
the same way she lived.
And we'll carry her forward
in every heartbeat,
every memory,
and every piece of love she gave us.

My sister.
My strength.
My forever.

TIFFANY

TIFFANY “TIFF” CINDY MARIE FELTON, born on January 28, 1990, in Orange Park, Florida, was the beloved daughter of Tracie N. Smith and Joe L. Frazier, Jr. She grew up in Green Cove Springs and later made Jacksonville, Florida, her home, where she continued her education and proudly graduated. Tiffany went on to pursue a career as an electrician with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, a trade in which she worked with pride, strength, and unwavering determination. Tiffany was a loving daughter, mother, sister, and friend, roles she cherished deeply.

Tiffany grew up in the church, rooted in faith from a young age. Her home church was First African Missionary Baptist Church, where she was raised in the love and guidance of her church family. In her adult life, she continued her walk with God and was currently attending Evergreen Baptist Church, carrying her faith with her through every season of life.

Tiff was known for her incredible work ethic and her unstoppable spirit. No matter what struggles life threw her way, she met them head-on and kept pushing forward. She always had a new dream, a new idea, or a new business venture on the horizon and whenever she set her mind to something, she not only did it, she went above and beyond. Her determination was unmatched, and her drive inspired everyone around her.

Tiffany was truly the life of the party. Feisty, bold, and unapologetically herself, she had a way of lighting up any room she walked into. Though she was often the smallest in the room, she made the biggest impact! Her personality, energy, and love were larger than life. People were drawn to her, because being around Tiff meant laughter, honesty, and a spirit you couldn't help but adore.

Tiffany's light left this world on November 16, 2025 but she will forever remain in our hearts, continuing to shine in the love and memories she gave us.

She was preceded in death by her mother: Tracie N. Delafield-Smith; brother: Jamoree R. Delafield; grandfather: Joe L. Frazier, Sr.; grandmother: Mary Tuggles.

Her loving memories will forever be cherished by her three Children: Azaria A. Butler, Ar'mauni Jones, and Derrius L. Hall, Jr.; Father: Joe L. Frazier Jr.; Siblings: James D. Felton, Chantavia T. Felton-Mitchell (Maury), Monique N. Smith, and Brittany T. White; Grandmothers: Sandra C. Person and Mary Lee Frazier; her loving Nieces and Nephews: Shayla Atwell, Jaylen Felton, Jarius Evans, Isaac Young, V., Paul R. Anderson, Paul Anderson, III, Paris Anderson and Jamar Felton; her God-mother, Tiffany Hodges and her Gigi, Jah'myrr Brown held a special place in her heart, as did her God-brothers: Craig Brown, Melvin Brown, and Taurence Whitehead; Uncles: Vernon Delafield, Ryan Delafield, Byron Bowens, Kerry Atkinson (Renada), and Eric Frazier; Aunts: Carla Brown-Anders, Kimberly Coleman, Shelia Augustin, Stephanie Frazier and Lisa Burney; Longtime Friends: Quantina Williams, Destina Polke, Ronneshia Dines, Shaye Williams, Shawn Haynes and Derricka Jordan. She also leaves behind a host of cousins and countless special friends who will forever cherish her memory.
