ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to my father, Ephriam; sister, April; children, Shanese, Ephriam, Elesha, and Essance; aunts, Brenda Joyce James, Mattie Pearl Robinson, Linda Ann Taylor; niece, Jayla Benjamin; cousins, Latasha Taylor, Christina Johnson; friends, Tamica Jones, Tiya Scroggins, Michelle Washington and our family and friends, Q.L Douglas Funeral Home Staff, Pastor Bruce Kelnohoffer of Trinity Baptist Church, Maxwell Snyder Armory for your kind deeds, words, and support during this difficult time.

Your prayers, presence, calls, and thoughtfulness have been a great comfort to our family. We deeply appreciate you for your compassion as we navigate through this difficult time and the days to come.

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

ZSA ZETTA
STUBBS
"Bebe"

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Life Story

Zsa Zetta Benjamin, affectionately known as “Bebe”, was born to Robert Benjamin Jr and Flora Jean Roberson Benjamin on March 31, 1973. She was baptized at Greater Elizabeth Baptist Church. She was a faithful member until she relocated to Jacksonville, Florida. A 1991 graduate of Woodlawn High School, Zsa later graduated from Louisiana State University at Shreveport in 1997 with a Liberal Arts Degree. Zsa had a successful 26-year career at AT&T.

Zsa was a loving and devoted wife and mother who was a born leader. She was a political science aficionado, technology enthusiast, football fan and a basketball player for LSU Women basketball team. Full of confidence, Zsa pursued her goals relentlessly displaying her resilience to succeed at any task placed in front of her. Her ambition, assertiveness, and strong sense of self, often took charge in situations that warranted her leadership and strong communication skills. Zsa was a self-driven, self-reliant, and goal-oriented PHENOMENAL woman, who balanced her strength with humility, empathy, and a desire to uplift others.

Zsa laid down new roots, established friendships, and found love. Zsa met Ephriam Stubbs Jr., who became her husband of 17 years. After being a stepmom for many years, Zsa was blessed with a son, Ethan Benjamin Stubbs in 2011.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Robert Benjamin, Jr. and Flora J. Fleming; brothers: Robert III and Christopher Cortez Benjamin; grandparents: Robert and Ethel Benjamin, Sr., Manuel and Roberta Roberson Sr.; aunts: Eula Sudds and Dorothy Jackson, and uncles: Manual and Larry Roberson, and Earl Benjamin.

Zsa is survived by her husband: Ephriam Stubbs, Jr.; children: Ethan Benjamin Stubbs, Shanese Thompson, Ephriam III, Elesha, and Essance Stubbs; grandchildren: Jerrod, Aaryn, Elijah, and A’ja; stepfather: John Edward Fleming (Shreveport, LA); father-in-law: Ephriam Stubbs, Sr. (Winter Haven, FL); brother-in-law: Danny (Tonia) Stubbs, Sr. (Atlanta, GA); sister-in-law: April N. Stubbs (Winter Haven, FL); aunts: Linda Ann Roberson Taylor, Brenda Joyce James, Mattie Pearl Robinson, Mary Louise Roberson (Shreveport, LA), Walter Benjamin (Gloria), Willie Benjamin, Mary B. White, Hattie Hamilton (Bossier, LA); nieces and nephews: Christopher Jr., and Jayla Benjamin, Brittani and Brandon Davis, Breanna Johnson, Dominique, Danny Jr., and Brooke A. Stubbs, and Michaela L. Kinsler. Along with 4 great-uncles, 5 great-aunts; 1 great-niece, 3 great-nephews and a host of cousins, friends and her Greater Elizabeth Baptist Church Family.

Zsa’s fierce love and devotion to family along with her impact will forever be remembered and cherished along with her enormous bright smile.
