LIFE STORY

Charles Lorenzo Byrd, Sr., was born on January 25, 1960, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Cearlie Flood and Tommie Lee Byrd. Charles also affectionately known as "Bop", attended the public schools of Duval County and was a graduate of Technical High School, Class of 1978.

Charles joined the United States Army where he served his country for twelve years. He went on to attend Florida Community College and earned his certification in welding. He was employed with Cool Air as a welder for over ten years.

Charles was a member of Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church.

Charles married the love of his life, Rose Mary Byrd. He loved cooking, Bruce Lee's karate movies, watching sports, listening to music, dancing and spending time with family.

On Friday, January 8, 2026, Charles answered the call of God and went to his heavenly home.

Those preceding him in death are his wife of forty-two years: Rose Mary Byrd; father: Tommie Lee Byrd; mother: Cearlie Brinson and sister: Tonna L. Byrd.
