

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play*

*And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now...He set me free.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Words cannot express our gratitude. We are so grateful for all the prayers and support shown to us during the loss of our loved one.

It is comforting to know that you had the time in your busy schedules to accommodate our needs and remember us in prayer.

Every act of kindness has been greatly appreciated. We Pray the Lord will forever bless and keep you.

THE BEAUTIFUL LIFE OF YASMEINE

Yasmeine Delaiah Harris, affectionately known as “Yas,” was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on June 14, 1998. She was preceded in death by her mother, Michele Cropper, and her maternal grandmother, Gail Harris.

Yasmeine attended local schools in Jacksonville, Florida, and was a graduate of William M. Raines High School. She later received a Certificate in Medical Assisting and was actively pursuing her nursing degree at Concorde Career Institute, reflecting her passion for helping and caring for others.

Throughout her life, Yasmeine worshiped at various churches and was most recently baptized at New Salem Missionary Baptist Church in Fruitland Park, Florida, where she also accepted the precious gift of salvation.

Yasmeine was a devoted and caring person who loved her son, family, and friends dearly. She enjoyed cooking, traveling, trying new things, and expressing her creativity through her crafts. She was well organized, full of laughter, and had a funny personality that brought joy to those around her.

Left to cherish Yasmeine’s loving memory is her beloved son: Jayce Waye; life partner: Bryce Waye; grandmother: Juana Clark; aunt: Yolandra Johnson (affectionately known as Auntie); uncle: Michael Harris; nephews: Tyler Hurst, Tristan Hurst, and Ja’Mari Ludd; niece: Alanna Ludd; sisters: Aubrey Hurst (Terrence) and Shaneka Williams; brothers: Deandre Snelling, Jovanti Ludd, and Gianni Ludd; special friends: Anthony Terry and Andrina (Drina) Bonnett, who was cherished as a sister and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Yasmeine will be deeply missed and forever remembered for her smile, compassion, creativity, humor, and the love she shared with all who knew her.
