IN LOVING MEMORY

REGINALD JACKSON, III

Reginald Jackson, III made a grand entrance in this world on January 5, 1995, to Tammy Fann and Reginald Jackson, Jr. He was affectionately known as “Vanny Boy” to all that loved him. Vanny attended school in Duval County Public Schools and graduated from Edward H. White High School in 2014. He later went on to work as a warehouse worker, where he was known for his strong work ethic and dependable spirit.

Vanny Boy with his magnetic spirit and loving heart, often had people naturally gravitate to him—his smile, his kindness, and his genuine nature left lasting impressions. Truly, to know Vanny was to love him.

A pure comedian at heart, his life was so full of love, laughter and connection, his presence will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew him.

Reginald entered rest with our Heavenly Father on Tuesday, January 13, 2026. Although Reginald’s earthly journey ended far too soon, his love, light, and legacy will remain eternal.

Reginald was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother: Geraldine Young; great-grandmother: Gladys Lucas and his favorite cousin: Javan Holmes, whom he loved dearly.

Reginald leaves to cherish his legacy with his beautiful daughters: Reigan, Rein, and Baby My’Angel Jackson. His memories will forever live in his beloved mother, Tammy Fann and father, Reginald Jackson Jr.; his loving sisters and brothers: Tyrisha Fann, Kevisha Jackson, LaBrenda “RayRay” Jackson, Houston Hissiun White, Kamaiya Jackson, Rejon Jackson, Requan Jackson and Kensington Jackson; nieces and nephews: Taylor Britt, Cali Reid, Breon “B2” Morris, Jr. and Rejon Jackson, Jr.; grandmother: Jan Taylor; grandfather: Reginald Jackson, Sr., special uncle and aunts: Reggie Jarrel Jackson, Renee Young and Lakila Jackson-Smith; his cherished companion, Kibreona “CoCo” Terry; bonus dad: Houston “Hamp” White; best friend: Elshawnn Jackson and a host of sorrowing close family members and close friends.

Though his time with us was far too short, his love will live on forever in the hearts of those he touched.

LOVING TRIBUTE

A MOTHER'S LOVE

My son, my heart, my greatest joy,
God loaned you to me, my precious boy.
Your laughter still echoes, your smile still stays,
Carried with me through all my days.
Though my arms ache to hold you near,
I trust God's promise—you're safe, not here.
Until we meet where pain is no more,
I'll love you always, forevermore.
— With love, your mom Tammy

VANNY'S SILENT CRY...

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside,
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.
I needed the quiet though at first, I rebelled,
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things.
Though weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly He drew me away.
I needed the quiet. No prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead--
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.

*You were my safe place, my happiness, my best friend.
Loving you was one of the greatest blessings of my life,
and losing you is the hardest pain I've ever known.*

I wish I had more moments to tell you how much you meant to me.

Letting go of those balloons felt like letting go of you,

and that's something I'm just not ready to do.

I got our kids 4ever.

*Just save me a spot when it's my time,
our love doesn't stop here baby!*

Forever really means forever with us.

So, this is not goodbye, but see you later

Love CoCo
