THE BEAUTIFUL LIFE OF

Tina

Tina Harris, “Mother,” as some called her, was born in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, to the late Homer and Beulah James on December 17, 1939. She went home to her Heavenly Father on February 12, 2026. Tina started her acting career at an early age in the fourth grade, which later led to the adult acting career she was very proud of. After some time in her hometown, Tina moved to Pasadena, California, with her husband and two children, Samuel Jones and Renea Foster.

In her early years, Tina wrote short stories and indulged in local fashion modeling, which carried her into her adult career at Color Visions Studio in Hollywood, California. She was our own personal superstar, blessed with a plethora of talents.

Tina was a mother, wife, grandmother, sister, friend, fashion guru, chef, producer, and so much more.

She was predeceased by her parents: Homer and Beulah James and her siblings: Gloria Jean James, Sharon Baker, Homer James, Jr. and David James.

She is survived by her grandkids: Donyeall Jones, Brian Jones, Eldredge Henderson, Kristal Henderson Sims (Dorsey Sims), Kendra Jones Thompson (Lendrick Thompson) and Samuel Jones, Jr.; siblings: Alberta Williams, Mercy Dee Jones, Dolaris Perdue, Helen Liggins, Cynthia Goff, Alfonso James, Allen James, Orian James and a host of other family and friends.
