ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family sincerely sends thanks to all who have offered love, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Your kindness has been a source of comfort and strength to us. We are especially grateful to those who knew Eric for who he truly was — a man who spoke his mind, made people laugh, and loved his family fiercely. Whether you shared a joke, a story, or a quiet moment with him, you helped make his life full of joy and laughter.

Thank you for celebrating his life with us and for honoring the man who drove many miles but always made room in his heart for the people he loved. We know he would have cracked a joke about all the fuss, and your presence here today reminds us of just how deeply he was loved.

A MAN WHO LOVED WELL

He loved, he laughed, he spoke his mind.
A gentle strength so rare to find.

Through trials and triumphs, joy and strife,
He walked with faith throughout his life.

His love built a home, his heart held tight.
He gave his family his all, day and night.

He carried burdens, lifted souls.
And made the ordinary completely whole.

Though he's gone where eyes can't see,
His love remains, eternally.
He rests safe now, no pain, no fears.
Forever with us through the years.
Yes, his departure came in an unexpected way,
We'll meet again, on God's eternal day.

ERIC'S LIFE & LEGACY

Mr. Eric Williams, a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, was born on December 7, 1964, in Jacksonville, Florida, to the late Marie Antoinette White and Clarence "Popeye" Wainwright, Jr.

Eric received his education in the Duval County Public School System and proudly graduated from William M. Raines High School in 1982. After completing high school, he earned his Commercial Driver's License (CDL) and began a dedicated career as a truck driver. Through his profession, he demonstrated a strong work ethic, commitment, and pride in providing for his family. His years on the road reflected his perseverance and determination to ensure his loved ones were well cared for.

At an early age, Eric grew up attending New First Corinth Baptist Church, where he developed a foundation of faith that remained with him throughout his life.

In 1988, Eric married the love of his life, Tammie Williams. Together, they shared thirty-eight beautiful years of marriage, building a life centered on love, family, and unwavering support for one another. Their union was a testament to loyalty, partnership, and enduring commitment.

Eric was preceded in death by his loving mother: Marie White; father: Clarence Wainwright, Jr.; son: Derrick Williams; grandmother: Unita Williams; grandfather: C.B. Williams; sister: Julia Wainwright; father-in-law: James Fason; nephew: Dorain White and uncles: John Morrison and Pat Henry.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his devoted wife: Tammie Williams; children: Eric Williams (Sade) and Amber Williams (Shawna); beloved grandchildren: Erica Williams, Eric Williams, Jr., Jakori Williams, Charlie Williams, Zyren Williams, and Zyhra Williams.

He is also survived by his mother-in-law: Shirley Fason; stepmother: Mary Wainwright; his aunts: Patricia Morrison, Betty Williams, Linda Williams, and Sharon Williams; his uncle: Richard Williams (Rosalyn); his siblings: Terrie White, Tonya White, Alonzo White (Lakeshia), Wendell White (Christine), Anthony White (Candace), Lakeyta Givens, and Clarence Wainwright, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends.

Eric will be remembered for his strength, dedication to his family, and the love he shared so freely. His legacy lives on through the many lives he touched. Though he will be deeply missed, his memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
