

THE ROAD HE TRAVELED

The road he walked was strong and true,
A life of love he carried through.
A father, brother, friend so dear,
A steady presence always near.

He taught us strength when times were tough,
Reminded us that faith was enough.
He taught us to listen, to care, to see,
And to treat others how we want to be treated,
And to never give up, even when we feel defeated.

With wisdom simple, yet deeply true,
He showed us what a good heart should do.
To lend a hand, to stand up tall,
And give our best in love to all.

Though heaven called him home to rest,
We know that God chooses only the best.
And while our hearts feel the pain today,
His love will never fade away.

For in each child and grandchild's face,
Lives his strength, his love, his grace.
And though the road ahead feels long,
We'll carry his lessons and remain strong.

Because a man like him leaves more than memories,
He leaves a path for us to see.
And as we walk the road ahead,
We'll hear his voice inside our head...

"Keep on trucking."

HIS STORY

DEVERICK OGLESBY, age 56, of Jacksonville, Florida, transitioned peacefully on March 9, 2026, surrounded by the love of his family.

Deverick Oglesby was born on October 13, 1969, in Jacksonville, Florida, to Deborah Thomas and David Oglesby. He was raised in Jacksonville and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School, where he formed many friendships and memories that would remain with him throughout his life.

Deverick, affectionately known as “Truck,” was a devoted son, father, proud grandfather, loving brother, and loyal friend. He had a huge heart and lived by the belief, “treat others how you want to be treated.” No matter the circumstance, he always found a way to push through and encouraged others to do the same.

Truck had a way of leaving a lasting impression on everyone he met. His presence was strong, his love for family was undeniable, and he was always willing to help anyone in need. Whether offering advice, support, or simply showing up when it mattered most, he made sure the people around him felt cared for. To his family, he was the nucleus that kept everyone connected. His love, strength, and unwavering support helped shape the lives of those closest to him.

Deverick shared six children with Ada Johnson including Janika Johnson, Deverick Oglesby, Jr., Devryka Oglesby, Derrick Oglesby (Alexis), Jasmine Stewart (Tevin) and Daisha Oglesby. He also leaves behind stepchildren whom he loved and embraced as family: Andre Brown (Andrika), Alonzo Brown, Stacy Brown, Deshay Warthen, Indiya Whyte, Linda Whyte, and Neil Whyte.

He was preceded in death by his longtime companion, Valencia Brown; his grandmother, Verdell Thomas; his uncle, Guy Oglesby; and his son, Anton Brown, Sr.

Left to cherish his memory are his parents, Deborah Thomas and David Oglesby; his brother, Tremonye Hughes and his sister, Delayna Mumford. He is also survived by his significant other, Rozlyn Warthen, along with thirty grandchildren who will continue to carry his legacy forward. He leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish the memories and love he shared with them.

Though he is no longer with us physically, Deverick’s love, memories, and the impact he made on those around him will live on through his family and everyone whose life he touched. His presence will be deeply missed, but his spirit and legacy will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

“To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.”
