

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard him call,
 I turned my back and left it all
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I've found that peace at the close of day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
 If my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
 Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF
YVETTE
FLEMING

Ms. Yvette Benita Fleming was born in New Jersey to Gloria and Robert Fleming on January 7, 1961. She lived and attended public schools in Jacksonville, FL. She received her high school diploma in 1979 from Jean Ribault High School and her Associates of Arts from Florida Junior College. She was very intelligent and motivated to succeed in life.

Yvette had various jobs including being a warehouse worker and caregiver. She was a very active person. She loved to dance, run and walk for miles for exercise. In addition, she loved music and people. She was on a local dance show called "The Teddy Washington Show" in 1982 and a cheerleader for a local basketball team. She stayed blasting Alexa to the highest volume and going downtown/gateway to just sit for hours talking to everyone. She also loved her grandchildren and sending them money in the mail just because.

She attended church at Northside Church of Christ with family from adolescence to adulthood and attended Potter's House almost every week when she relocated on the Westside for the past five years.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Gloria and Robert Lee Fleming; bonus dads: Edward Roberts and Joseph Dixon; sister: Rhonda Fleming and aunt: Loretta Williams.

Yvette is survived by her daughter: Eltoya Humphries; son: Roland Humphries; grandchildren: Amiracle Humphries, Amarje Humphries, Sincere Humphries, Giovanni Humphries and Paris Humphries; sisters: Valerie Watson, Robin Fleming and Angel Andrews; Uncle Curtis; aunts: Deloris Champion and Jackie Fleming and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
