A MOTHER'S LEGACY

In the Spirit of Maya Angelou

A mother's love is not a fleeting thing,
It's the rhythm in the heart, the song the soul will sing.
It's a strength that stands like a mountain high,
A golden light that refuses to die.
To her daughter, she was the North Star's glow,
The one who taught her everything she'd need to know.
They weren't just mother and child, you see—
But the truest friends a pair could ever be.
Through the trials and the pain, she wore a grin,
Teaching us that laughter is how we truly win.
She'd trade a tear for a joke and a smile,
Making the heavy road feel light for a while.
Though her season has changed and she's taken her flight,
She's making the heavens laugh with all of her might.
So look to her daughter, and there you will find,
The beautiful spirit Angel left behind.

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." — Maya Angelou

ANGEL'S LIFE STORY

ORDER OF SERVICE

Pastor Yvette Daniels Humphrey, Officiating

*"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."
- Ecclesiastes 3:1*

Angel Quineet Daniels, a beloved daughter, mother, sister, and friend, began her earthly journey on May 22, 1992, in Jacksonville, Florida.

Born to the late Omeria Daniels, Marion Daniels, and Kareem Shabazz, Angel was a woman of ambition and intelligence. She attended Dougherty High School in Albany, Georgia, before returning home to graduate from Andrew Jackson High School in Jacksonville. Her quest for knowledge continued in Daytona Beach, where she attended Bethune-Cookman University and graduated from Daytona Beach Community College.

The absolute light of Angel's life was her only daughter, Hai'vyn A'Kylah Daniels. They were more than mother and daughter; they were the very best of friends, sharing a bond that surpassed words. Angel's greatest pride was watching Hai'vyn grow, and her love for her daughter was the anchor that kept her steady through every storm.

Angel was known for her infectious spirit and her unique ability to bring laughter to any room. No matter what pain she was carrying or what challenges she faced, she made it her mission to make others smile. Her family finds comfort in knowing that she is now in heaven, free of pain, and surely making the angels laugh.

On March 18, 2026, Angel's season changed as she was called home to eternal rest. Angel was greeted in glory by her parents and her dear sister, Marcia Harvey.

Her memory will be cherished by her loving daughter, Hai'vyn Daniels; siblings: Al'Vonvale Daniels, James Rainge, Jr., Shaunderia Daniels, Aqueelah Ross and Carla Daniels; she leaves behind a generation of nieces and nephews, Shaniqua Cardona, Walter Watkins, Jr., Shaniya Price, Paris Norris, Denim Morrison, Romelle Harvey, Yazmin Faison, Roland Ball, Maurice Harvey, SaQhyla Freeman, and Kaileigh Ross; great-niece, Ke'Ari Dream Lewis. Her life was enriched by a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins, and devoted friends.

Special acknowledgments to Hai'vyn's godparents, Kriston Brenay and Ryan Sandy; grandparents, Pastor Anthony Baker (Tamma); JaVarris Johnson (Hai'vyn's father), and Jason Loving (Angel's godfather).
