THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Anita

Anita Chester was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on November 5, 1958, to the parents of Ida Mae L. Wallace and Capus Chester. She attended the public schools of Duval County and graduated from Paxon High School in 1976. After high school, she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology. She attended Revival Church of Jesus Christ under the leadership of Pastor Johnnie Griffin, Sr.

Anita dedicated many years of her life to serving and protecting others through her work. She was employed as a security guard with Convergys, where she was known for her vigilance, reliability, and strong sense of responsibility. In addition, Anita devoted ten years of compassionate service to a youth crisis center, where she provided support, care, and guidance to young individuals during some of the most difficult moments of their lives. Her commitment to helping others and her steady presence made a meaningful impact on both her colleagues and those she served.

Anita found great joy and comfort in her faith, and she deeply cherished the time she spent in church, where she built lasting connections and drew strength from her spiritual life. She had a vibrant personality and a natural gift for bringing joy to others, often sharing jokes and lighthearted moments that filled any room with laughter. Anita's warm sense of humor and uplifting spirit left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered. Above all, she was a generous and giving person, always willing to lend a helping hand, offer kind words, or support those in need. Her selflessness and genuine care for others will be remembered as a defining part of her life.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Anitra Jackson, Danny Chester (Anthnetter), Daniel Chester and Artavia Chester; grandchildren, Elijah Jackson, Ar'Teyja Chester and Deionte Jackson; parents, IdaMae L. Wallace and Capus Chester; siblings, Captrinner Cummings (Minister Michael), Joseph Gaines (Johnnie Mae), Larry Gaines, Bobby Gaines (Alpha), Capus Chester (Annette) and CarLouis Chester Sr.; aunt, Georgia Ann White, god sister, Beverly Zanders; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
