ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Sarah Jane Hughes-Mobley wishes to express our deepest and most heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness, the prayers, the calls, the cards, the food, the flowers, and the warm embraces extended to us during this season of bereavement. In our moment of sorrow, you have been the very hands and feet of Christ, and we have felt the love of God through each of you.

We give special thanks to the pastor, ministers, officers, and members of the church family for their spiritual guidance and unwavering support; and every friend, neighbor and extended family member who walked this road with us. May God richly bless you, keep you and return your kindness to you a hundredfold.

“The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee.” – Numbers 6:24-25

HUGHES-MOBLEY

On Wednesday, May 13, 2026, around 10:30 am, our Heavenly Father gently called home one of his most faithful and cherished daughters, Sarah Jane Hughes-Mobley. While heaven gained an angel, our hearts felt a loss so deep it cannot be fully put into words.

Sarah was born on June 1, 1949, the youngest of ten children born to the late Leroy Hughes, Sr. and Leola Thompson Hughes. From the very beginning, her life was rooted in faith, strength, and an unwavering love for her family. She was a woman who gave endlessly — her time, her guidance, and most of all, her love.

She was educated in the Gadson County School System. Sarah dedicated 30 plus years of loyal and committed service to Blue Cross Blue Shield, where she built lasting friendships and earned the respect and admiration of her coworkers through her kindness, compassion, and strong work ethic. She took great pride in her work and was always willing to lend a helping hand to those around her. Her warm spirit and caring heart made a lasting impression on everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

After retiring from Blue Cross Blue Shield, Sarah continued to serve others by working several years at St. Pius Catholic School. Even in retirement, she remained active and devoted to helping her church, bringing the same dedication, warmth, and generosity that defined her throughout her life. Sarah's gentle nature, unwavering faith, and love for people will be deeply missed and forever remembered by her family, friends, coworkers, and all whose lives she touched.

Sarah had a spirit that was both strong and full of life. She shared a special and unbreakable bond with her sisters Antoinette and Lottie and nephew, Timothy, who was like a son to her. Before and during her illness, they created a lifetime of memories filled with laughter, resilience, and unwavering support.

She was first united in marriage to Leroy Fisher, Sr., and from that union came her beloved children, Jaquelyn Fisher-Tolen, Leroy Fisher, Jr., and Michael Fisher, Sr. Later, she married Ronald Mobley, who preceded her in death.

Her faith was the foundation of her life. She was a faithful member of the Greater Friendly Missionary Baptist Church, where she served faithfully within her church community. Sarah lived out her faith daily through love, service, and quiet strength.

To know Sarah was to know true, unconditional love. She was the one who held the family together — the steady presence, the comforting voice, and the guiding hand. Sarah always showed up, she gave freely, and she loved without limits.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Jacquelyn Fisher-Tolen (Louis), her sons Leroy Fisher, Jr. and Micheal Fisher, Sr. (Caroline), Timothy Hughes (Lauretha) nephew (like a son), Grandchildren: Porsha Fisher, Leroy Fisher, III, Anitra Danyelle Fisher, Shannitra DaShaun Fisher, Michael Fisher II (Sara), Amber Parker, Khamani Fisher; her great-grandchildren, DaShaun Michael Fisher, Jerriya Heaven-Sharain Tyson, Caden Sharod Tyson, Maya Louise Fisher, Michael Jerome Fisher III, Jahmani Swain, Jay, and King-Lamar Clinton Bradley; sister Antoinette Hughes Butler-Hinson (Woodrow), and sister in law Wylene Gray Hughes. Along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and dear friends whose lives were forever touched by her love.

She was preceded in death by her siblings, Delia Mae Hughes, George Hughes, Joseph Hughes, John Hughes, Enda Hughes, Ola Lee Hughes, Leroy Hughes, Jr.

Post loss, Lottie Hughes-Young answered the call of heaven shortly after her beloved sister Sarah.

If a life can be measured by the love it gives and the lives it touches, then Sarah life was truly extraordinary. As the hymn says, "If can help somebody, then my living shall not be in vain," and without question — her life was not in vain."
