

The Broken Chain

*We little knew the morning that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.*

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

LATRICE

Latrice Joazil was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on September 14, 1983, to the proud parents of Betty Taylor and Jean Joazil. She attended the public schools of Duval County and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 2002.

After graduation, Latrice earned an Associate Degree in Criminal Justice. She also earned certifications as a Florida Bails Bondsman and a Florida Notary Public.

Latrice was employed with Bank of America as a Loan Service Officer for over eight years. She also worked as a Merchant Mariner with the U.S. Coast Guard.

Latrice was a loving mother, a caring sister and one of the sweetest people you could ever meet. She loved traveling, shopping, people less fortunate than herself and being around children, bringing laughter and love wherever she went. She worked hard, loved hard and always spoke her mind. Those who knew her understood the depth of her love and loyalty. Her humor, strength and unforgettable personality will forever live in the hearts of those who loved her. She was preceded in death by her sister, Gwendolyn Taylor and her godsister, Ashley Williams.

Loving memories of Latrice will be forever cherished by her long-term partner, William Pugh; her children, William Pugh IV, Kha'Niaya Clark, Kamari Pugh and William Pugh III; her parents, Betty Taylor (Clayton) and Jean Joazil (Ophnia); god-daughter, Charlee Powell-Solomon; brothers and sisters, Latasha McCray, Tara Nicole McCray, Christopher McCray, Tannette Lewis (Ernest), Emmanuel Joazil (Bilandra), Jean Joazil and Shamkha Joazil; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
