THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

BRYANNA

Bryanna Ranice “Bree” Yancy was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on October 18, 1997, to Mia and Albert. From the time she was less than a year old, Marvette was blessed to be a part of Bryanna’s life. When Bryanna was two years old, Marvette married her father, and from that moment forward, she embraced Bryanna as her own. She loved her, raised her, nurtured her, protected her, and stood beside her through every season of life. Their bond grew far beyond that of a stepmother and child. Bryanna became her daughter in every sense of the word. As adults, Marvette and Bryanna later made that bond official, but in heart, Bryanna had been her daughter all along. She loved her unconditionally and cherished the privilege of being her mother.

She attended the Potter’s House Christian Academy, Darnell Cookman Middle School and graduated from Mandarin High School in 2015. She attended Florida State College at Jacksonville in 2017, earning an Associates of Arts in General Education. She graduated from St. Johns River State College in 2025 with an Associate in Science in Nursing. She was employed at Walgreens as a Registered Pharmacy Technician from 2018-2025.

In 2025, Bryanna became engaged to her beloved fiancé, Malik Brockington, as they looked forward to building a beautiful life together. Through their relationship, Bryanna also lovingly embraced Malik’s two children, Malikai and Makai, who became a special part of her life and heart.

After recently completing her nursing education, she worked as a certified nursing assistant at Baptist Medical Center of Jacksonville – 5 Tower, while preparing to sit for the NCLEX- RN and begin her career as a registered nurse. She grew up in the House of Faith Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Pastor Mack Harris.

Bree begin cheering at the tender age of four, and her love for cheering continued throughout her high school years. She was fluent in American Sign Language and had a special place in her heart for children and animals.

Bree had a vibrant personality and truly knew how to enjoy life. She loved watching Grey’s Anatomy, but Dreamgirls held a special place in her heart so much that she could quote just about every line in the movie, she also had quite the obsession with cups and could never seem to have too many!

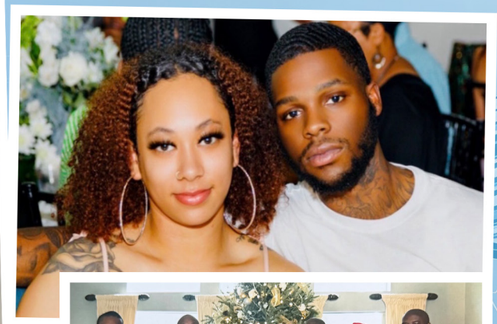

When it came to food, Bree loved good soul food, especially macaroni and cheese and meatloaf. She was also an incredibly hard worker who rarely, if ever, turned down a shift. Her strong work ethic was something those around her could always count on.

One of Bree’s greatest joys was traveling with her mom. Recently, the two began taking special mother and daughter trips together, creating memories that they would cherish forever. Bree also had a love for museums. On the day of her passing, she was traveling to visit The Obama Presidential Center Museum in Chicago, IL.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Gary Yancey and some grandparents.

She is survived by her biological mother, Mia Williams and biological father, Albert Yancey and her adopted mother, Marvette Tookes; her brothers and sisters, Albert, Loretta (Frank), Carry, Cynsean, Alnisha, Breon, Javonte, Emmanuel, Zion, Kayla, Gage and a host of other siblings; her grandparents, Cheryl and Orville Thompson; aunts, Shawna Tookes and Angela (Antwyan) Youmans; uncles, Marvin (Stacey) Tookes, Cornelius (Lareina) Thompson and Dwyane Thompson; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
