LIFE STORY

Rhonda L. Norris was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on February 1, 1970, to Herbert Norris and Sandra Murray. She attended the public schools of Duval County and graduated from Andrew Jackson High School in 1989.

For more than 20 years, Rhonda dedicated her life to serving others as a self-employed gifted Loctician and a Clerical Associate for UF Health at Shands. Her faith began at First Titus Missionary Baptist Church during childhood, as she was carried into adulthood, her worship continued at Believers in Christ International Christian Center.

If you really knew her, you know she enjoyed traveling with friends and family, spending quality time with all of her grandbabies and children, surely listening to one of her books, attending a good concert, festival, comedy show, or just making memories with those she loved. One thing you could always count on from her is a DM or inbox about her next adventure or a funny video. Always rest assured, she will be putting on those sunglasses before she walk out of any door and she will have a fit if she doesn't have something on her feet at all times indoors or out.

She was preceded in death by her father, Herbert Norris. Those left the cherish her memories are her children, Kevin Grant (Lavandria) and Kazmier Wilson; her grandchildren, Kennedy Grant, Nori Grant and Jaxon Grant; her mother, Sandra Murray; her siblings, Kevin Norris, Wanda Norris, and Bridgette Norris; grandparents, O'darl Jones and Charles Murray; aunt, Vanessa Johnson; uncles, William T. Murray, Michael Jones, Turhan Jones and Neil Jones; and a host of other relatives and friends.
