

My Beautiful Daughter

A daughter is a wonderful blessing,
A treasure from above.
Her laughter, warmth and special charm,
Her thoughtfulness and love.

A daughter brings a special joy,
That comes from deep inside.
And as she grows to adulthood,
She fills your heart with pride.

With every year that passes,
She's more special than before.
Through every stage, through every age,
You love her even more.

No words can describe the warm memories,
The pride and gratitude, too.
That comes from having a daughter,
To love and to cherish... just like you! ~ Author Unknown
WITH LOVE, MAMA

A Time For Goodbye

There's a time for us to live,
And a time that we must die.
A time to say hello,
And a time to say good-bye.
Although it's very hard
To tell you good-bye now,
We'll wipe away our tears
And continue on somehow.
Then when our life is over,
And it's our turn to go,
They'll be telling us good-bye,
While we're telling you hello.

THE ESSENCE OF HER LIFE

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Revelations 21:4

During the evening hours of Wednesday, August 7, 2024, the shores of time ceased as our dear daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and friend slipped from mortal to immortality. Reminded of the love she demonstrated, her exuberant demeanor, and the passion for her family and friends that she continually exhibited thru her laughter and virtue; the essence of the life of Mrs. Coreatha Brown Tyson, are and forever will be etched in our hearts.

Born to loving parentage of Ms. Carolyn Brown Riley, Coreatha was reared in the home of her late grandparents, Henry & Irene Green Brown in the Robinson Community of Yemassee, SC. She was educated in the Colleton County School District, graduating from Walterboro High School Class of 1992. Coreatha was joined in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Charles Tyson on August 20, 1999. She became a member of Mount Nebo Baptist Church and gave herself to Christ on March 13, 2005.

Throughout her adult years, her work portfolio consisted of various leadership roles. She served as a manager for Door-to-Door Dry Cleaners, of Bluffton, SC: Superior Dry Cleaners of Hardeeville, SC: and the Shell Gas Station of Bluffton, SC.

Affectionately known as, “Melissa”; the charisma that she possessed, was one of a kind. She never met a stranger, and was a light of any environment or area that she was in. With a heart of gold, Melissa valued everyone in her circle, however; her siblings, nieces, nephews, grand nephews, and cousins, always touched, “The Soft Spot”.

Preceding her in death along with her grandparents; is one uncle, Randy Brown. Left to forever embrace the portraits of her life are; loving mother, Carolyn (Joseph) Riley of Yemassee, SC; two special aunts who were “mother figures”, Emma Springer of Augusta, GA, and Sandra Brown of Yemassee, SC: sister, Courtney Riley (James) McLaughlin of Columbia, SC: brothers, Rafe (Shandrica) Brown of Yemassee, SC and Wesley Riley of Summerville, SC: Special cousin reared as a sister, Prophetess Yolanda B.
