

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

A Light From Our Household

A light from our household is gone,

A voice we loved is stilled;

A place is vacant in our home,

Which never can be filled.

We have to mourn the loss of one,

We did our best to save;

Beloved on earth, regretted still,

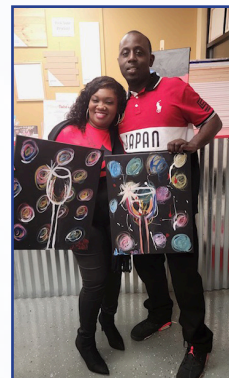

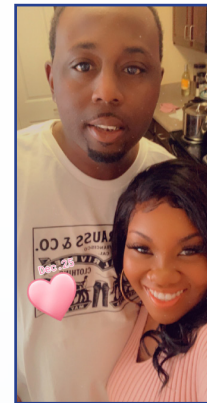

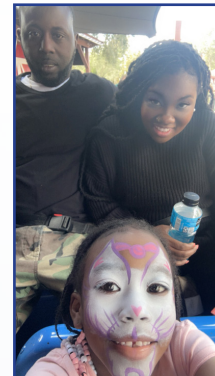

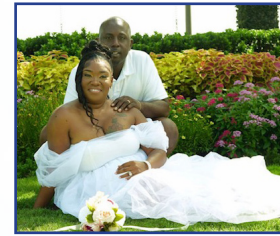

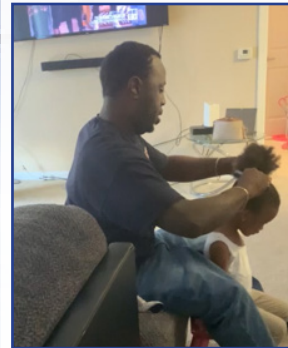

Remembered in the grave.

T'was hard to part with one so dear,

We little thought the time was near;

Farewell our dear one - your life is past,

Our love for you till the end will forever last.

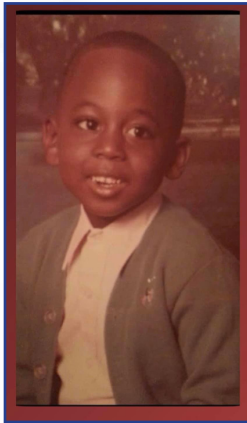

OUR CHERISHED MEMORIES

Mr. Maurice Levar Brown, Sr., son of the late Flora Lee Brown and Willie Snipe, was born February 17, 1979, in Beaufort, SC. As a youth, Maurice received his education in the public schools of Beaufort County, graduating from Beaufort High School Class of 1999. Maurice then furthered his studies and enrolled into Palmetto Training School, where he received his Commercial Driver's License with a Class A endorsement, in 2018. During his high school years and even into his working career, it was truly known that Maurice was a hard worker and gave it his all in all.

From a youth until his adulthood, Maurice resided in the Beaufort area, his entire life. He was recently joined in Holy Matrimony to Ms. Nachella Smalls, on September 3, 2023. Not only was he a beloved husband, but he was a father, grandfather, brother, cousin and so much more. He loved his family beyond measure, and his children; but when he became a grandfather, that smile brightened even the more. Along with spoiling his grandchildren, his other past times were fishing and going on vacation as much as possible.

On Sunday, September 8, 2024, our dear Mr. Maurice Levar Brown, Sr., changed from mortal to immortality as he departed from the shores of time. Though he has left a void, that can never be filled, his memories will forever live on and be a comfort to each and everyone of us. Preceding him in death along with his beloved mother, are two brothers, Karoy Lorenza Brown and Jessie Simmons, and one sister, Ernestine Simmons: Left on this side to truly cherish his memories are: wife, Nachella Smalls, of the home: daughters, Ny'Aisha Brown of Lady's Island, SC, and Gabriella Smalls of Yemassee, SC; and one son, Maurice Brown of Lady's Island, SC: grandchildren, Nymir and Milan Brown: siblings; David Brown, Sr., Lynetta B. (Michael) Murray, Robert Brown, Gideon (Yvette) Brown, Jr., Agnes Cantel Brown and Jermaine (Tasha) Brown; aunt, Evelyn G. Williams; uncle, Richard (Odessa) Williams, Jr. along with a host of numerous other relatives and friends.

We Are Learning How To Live

by Jamey Wysocki

We are learning how to live

In a new way

Since that day

You were taken away.

We are learning how to live

With the things left unsaid

Knowing we got to say them

With every tear that we shed.

We are learning how to live

By embracing the pain

Knowing that you live on

Through the memories that remain.

We are learning how to live

Knowing we will never again see your face

And we do have peace knowing

You're in a better place.

We are learning how to live

Knowing you're in God's care

It gives me the strength to move on

And makes the pain much easier to bear.
