

Granddad

We know you can no longer stay with us,
you fought long and hard to be with us.
We know you now watch over and protect us.
Although we cannot hear your voice
or see your smiling face, we know deep down in our hearts
that you have not left us.

Instead every day you surround us with the singing of the birds,
the rising of the sun and the falling of night.
So many broken hearts are left behind,
But in our deepest despair our greatest comfort lies knowing that you are now at peace with the angels and God.

So as times passes our tears will dry,
our hearts will mend,
but our love for you will never end.

He Only Takes the Best

God saw that he was getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around him and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched him suffer,
And saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes "the best."

A Portrait of His Life

Mr. Esau "Jack" Roberts, Jr., son of the late Mr. Esau & Mrs. Mary Lee Francis Roberts; was born on July 21, 1957. During the morning hours of Saturday, November 1, 2025; Esau departed transitioned from mortality to immortality.

A proud native of the tight-knit Jonesville community of Yemassee, he attended Walterboro High School and graduated with the Class of 1976. He later attended Beaufort Technical College, where he earned his associate's degree in civil engineering. He went on to open his own business, Roberts Heating and Air. Through his hard work and dedication, he built and maintained a successful business for many years. He was also employed as an HVAC technician at the Marine Corps Air Station in Beaufort for many years. Esau was a hardworking and devoted provider, always ensuring his family was cared for.

At an early age, Esau accepted the Lord as his Savior and was baptized with the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Rev. Mannie C. Chisolm. On July 17, 1982, Esau was joined in holy matrimony to Kim B. Brown. From this union, two children were born. He was a loving, giving husband and father who created lasting memories with his family. He adored his three grandchildren and loved spoiling them.

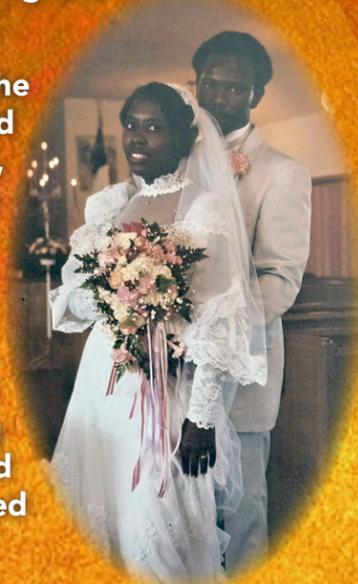

Esau also worked at numerous restaurants throughout Beaufort. His passion for cooking led him to open Loretta's Kountry Kitchen in Yemassee, alongside his sister. His work in the community connected him with many people and allowed him to cultivate countless meaningful and lasting friendships over the years.

Affectionately known as "Uncle Bobo" to his nieces and nephews, Esau loved to dress sharp and step out with style. If there was a fedora to be worn, it was certainly his. There wasn't a crease that could out-crease him when he put on his finest. He believed in looking his best and enjoying life while doing it.

Preceding him in death along with his parents are; sisters Loretta and Betty Ann; and brothers Eli, Daniel, and Colendeis

In his passing, he leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Kim Roberts; his children, Brad and KaLa (Matthew); grandchildren, Khalil, Bryce, and Kalix; siblings, Carolyn "Joyce" Brown and Larry Roberts, both of Yemassee; Father-in-law Elijah Williams, Maryland; Sister-in-laws; Roxann (Donald) Hipp, Yemassee, SC; Sonnya (Adrian) Priester, Brunson, SC; Sheri Evans (Eric), Maryland; Josie Roberts, Yemassee, SC; Jackie Jenkins Walterboro, SC; Brother-in-laws: Tony (Verlie) Chisolm, Reginald Brown, both of Yemassee SC; Reginald Williams, Virginia; Aunts; Jeannette Francis, Florida; Ruth Francis Yemassee, SC; Uncle; Sunmon "Bo" Francis (Bert) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever remember his warmth, humor, and generosity.

*Remember me
in your heart:
Your thoughts,
and your memories,
Of the times
we loved,
The times
we cried,
The times
we fought,
The times
we laughed.
For if you
always think of me,
I will never have gone.*
