THE REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

Mr. Alvin Pringle, son of the late, Carrie B. Smith Pringle and Arthur Pringle, Sr., was born on October 15, 1949, in Yemassee, South Carolina. One of six children, Alvin was reared under the watchful eyes of a large and loving family and community. Educated in the public schools of Hampton County, he was a graduate of North District Training School class of 1970, of Varnville, South Carolina.

Becoming a man, Alvin relocated to Lakewood, New Jersey, to begin life as he would know it. While there he was united in holy matrimony to Mrs. Mary Pringle, and this union would be blessed with two beautiful daughters. As a husband and a father, he understood that a man had to provide for his family. He was previously employed by several various entities, before beginning his career with the United States Postal Services. Serving for over thirty-four years, he would serve and transport mail tirelessly and effortlessly, until his retirement.

Entering a new chapter of life, after his retirement, Alvin returned home to reconnect with his family and friends, in his hometown of Yemassee, South Carolina. Shortly thereafter, he found love again and was united in holy matrimony with Ms. Elvira Frazier. Affectionately known as “Keith”, he was a loved and well-mannered individual. He often enjoyed his time relaxing and/or spending time with his family and friends. He also loved watching sports of any kind and was an avid fisherman.

During the morning hours of Friday, February 6, 2026, while at the Hampton Regional Medical Center, our husband, father, grandfather, brother and loved one traded his time on earth for an eternal rest in glory. Preceding him in death along with his parents are, brothers: Arthur Pringle, Jr. and Kenneth Pringle, Sr. Left to embrace his fond memories are: wife, Ms. Elvira Pringle; two daughters, Tausha Williams and Kendra Williams, both of Severn, MD; one son, Demetrius (Marie) Frazier of Bloomingdale, GA; one sister, Susiana Campbell of Pineland, SC; two brothers, Vincent Pringle and Dennis Pringle, both of Yemassee, SC; five grandchildren; one great-grandchild; eight sisters in law; three brothers in law; one aunt, along with a host of numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Through rain or snow, or sunny skies,

You carry hope that never dies.

With every letter, box, or card,

You serve each home, you work so hard.

From morning routes to evening's end,

You are the stranger-and the friend.

You bring the news both near and far,

A daily gift from where we are.

You walk with care, with steady pace,

Delivering joy from place to place.

A child's smile, a heartfelt note,

All travel through the paths you tote.

You wear the blue with humble pride,

With every door, you stand beside

A quiet link in life's grand chain,

Through summer heat or winter rain.

So here's our thanks in word and deed-

You meet the call, you fill the need.
